

To the family of

Charles Antony Lyell V.C.

2d Baron Lyell of Kinnordy
and great, great nephew of Sir Charles Lyell

Killed in action in Tunisia
27 April 1943

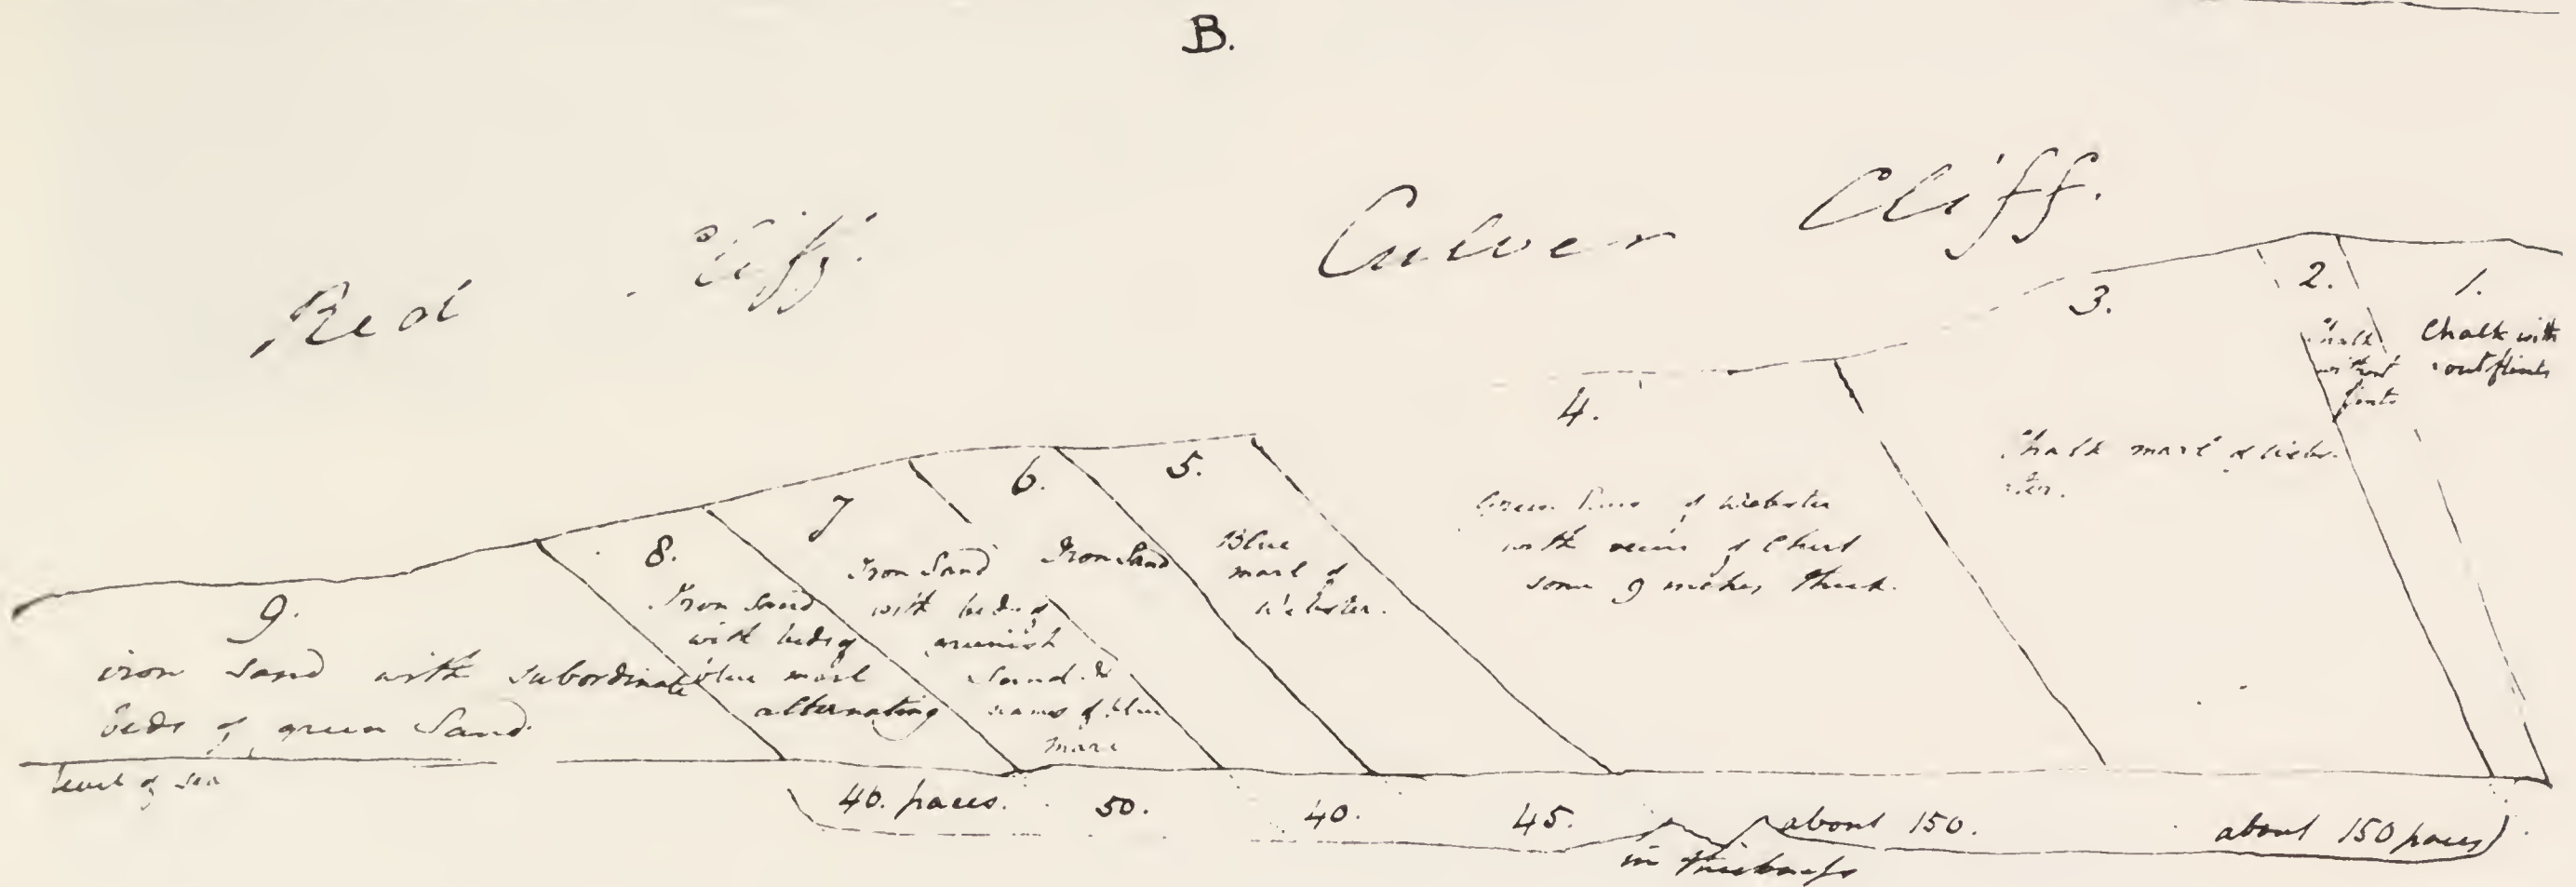

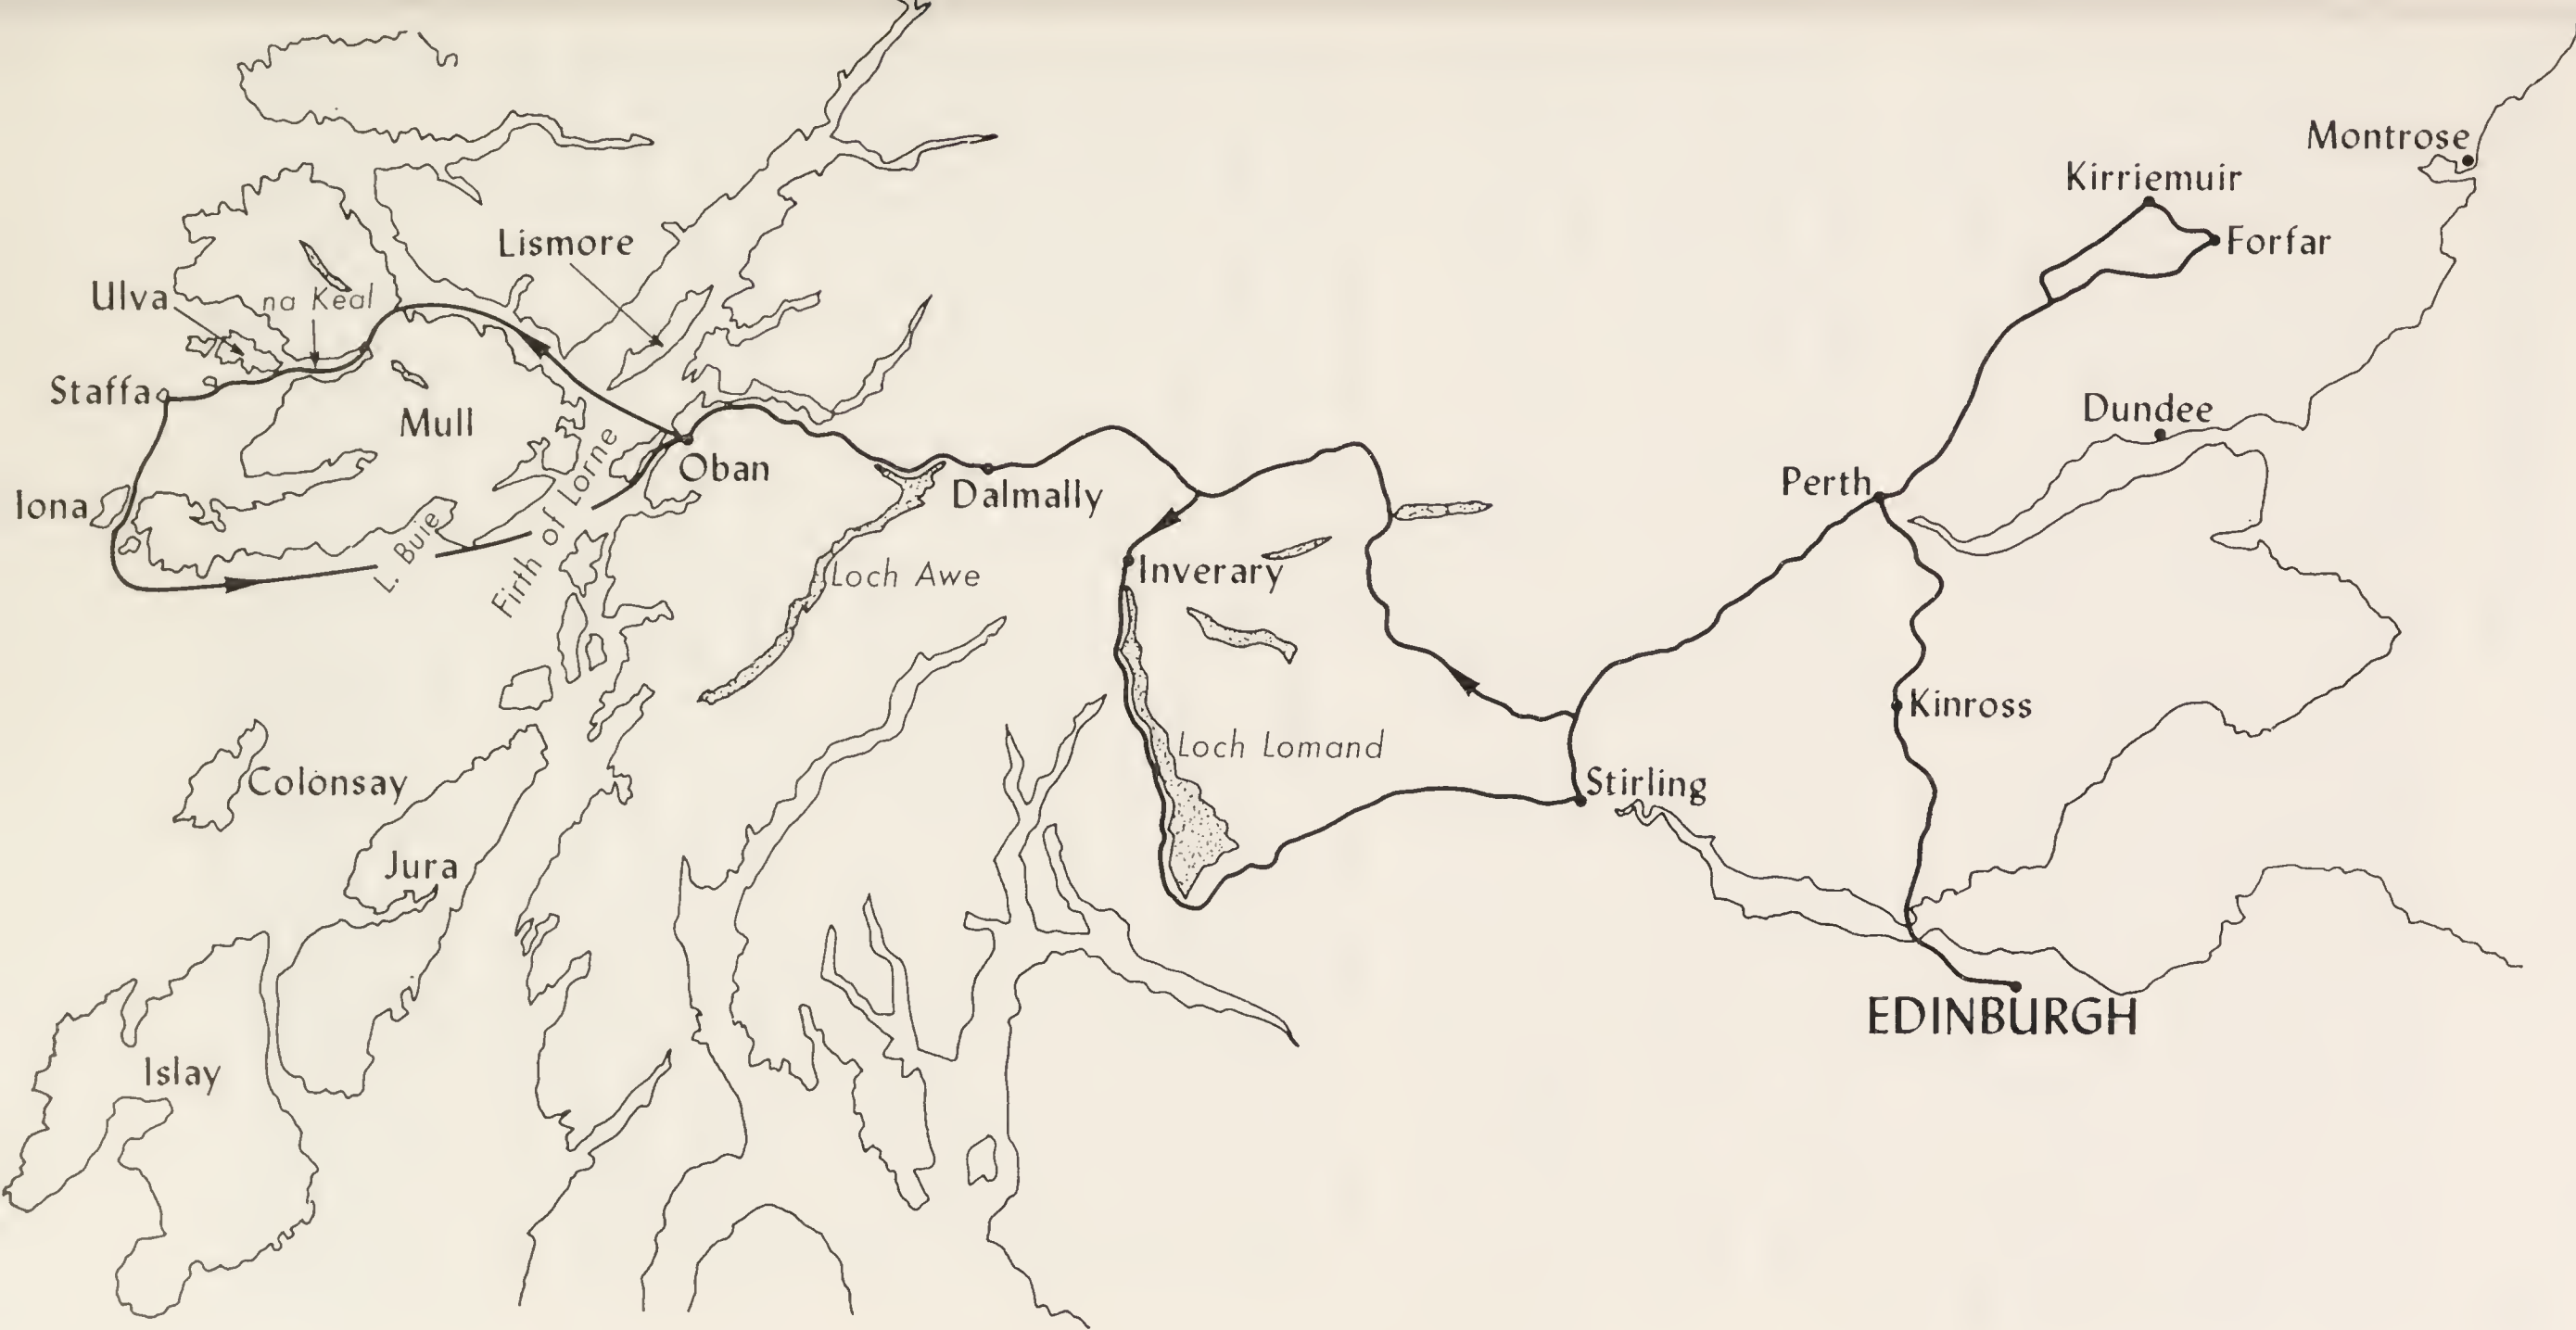

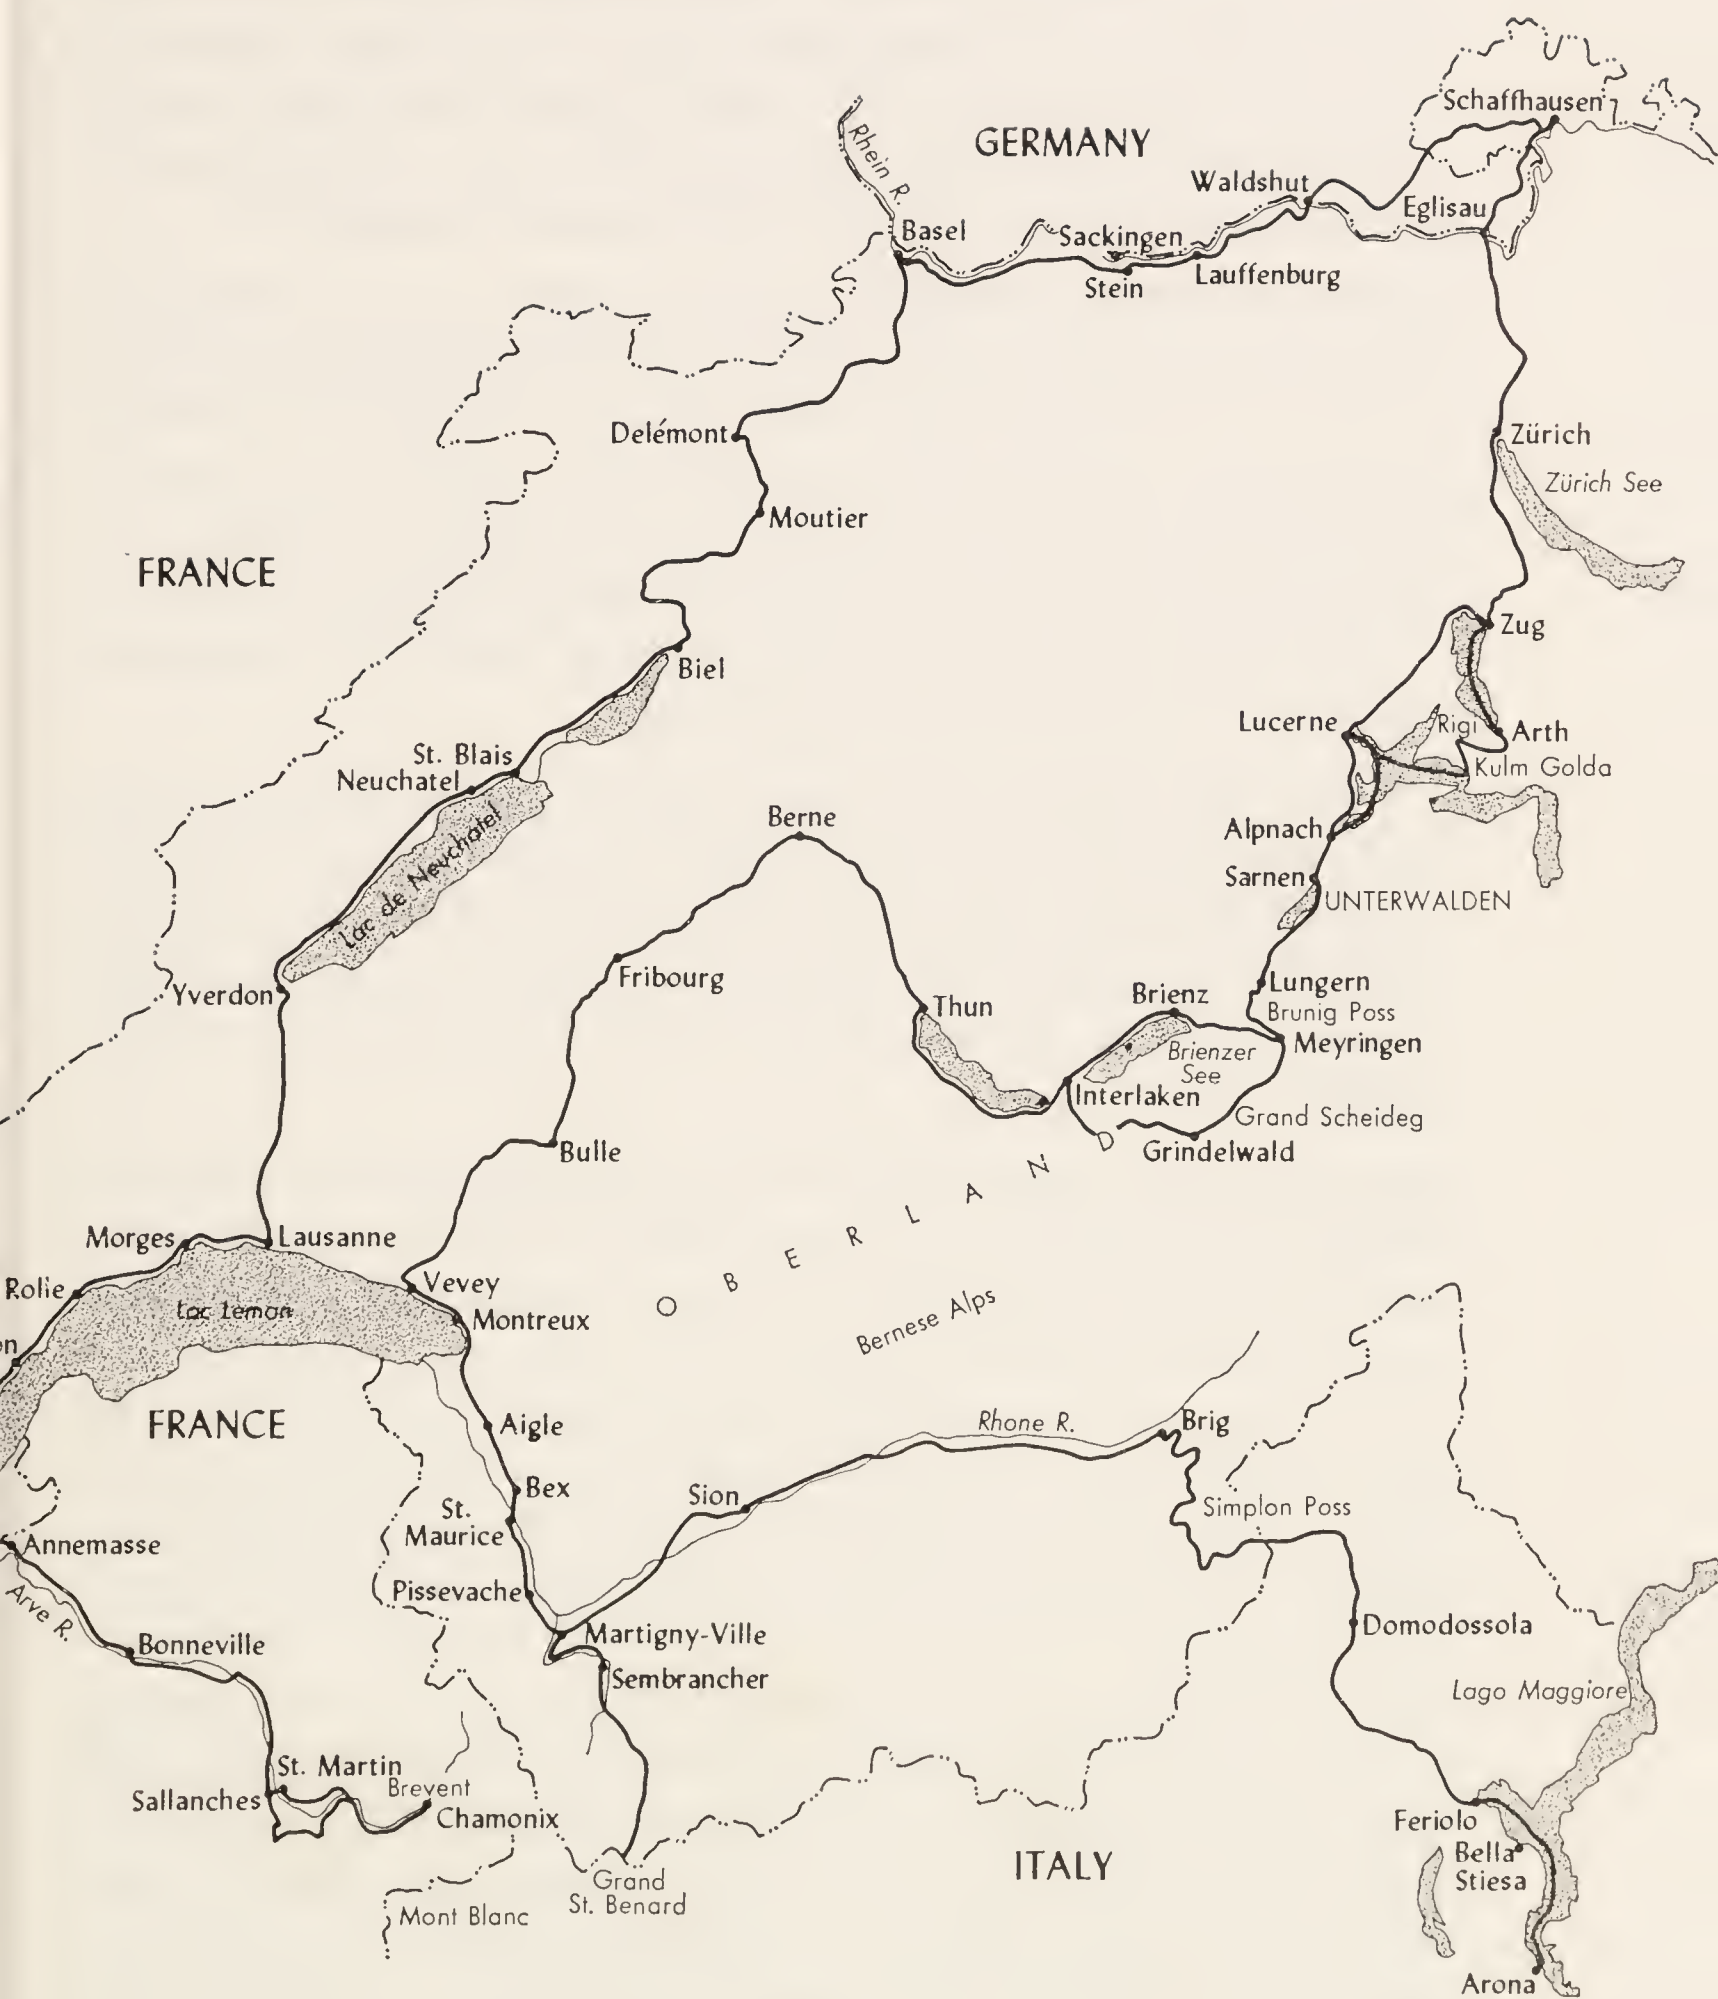

Fig. 16. Lyell's section of Sandown Bay, 1822.

1. The south of England with the places important in Lyell's boyhood

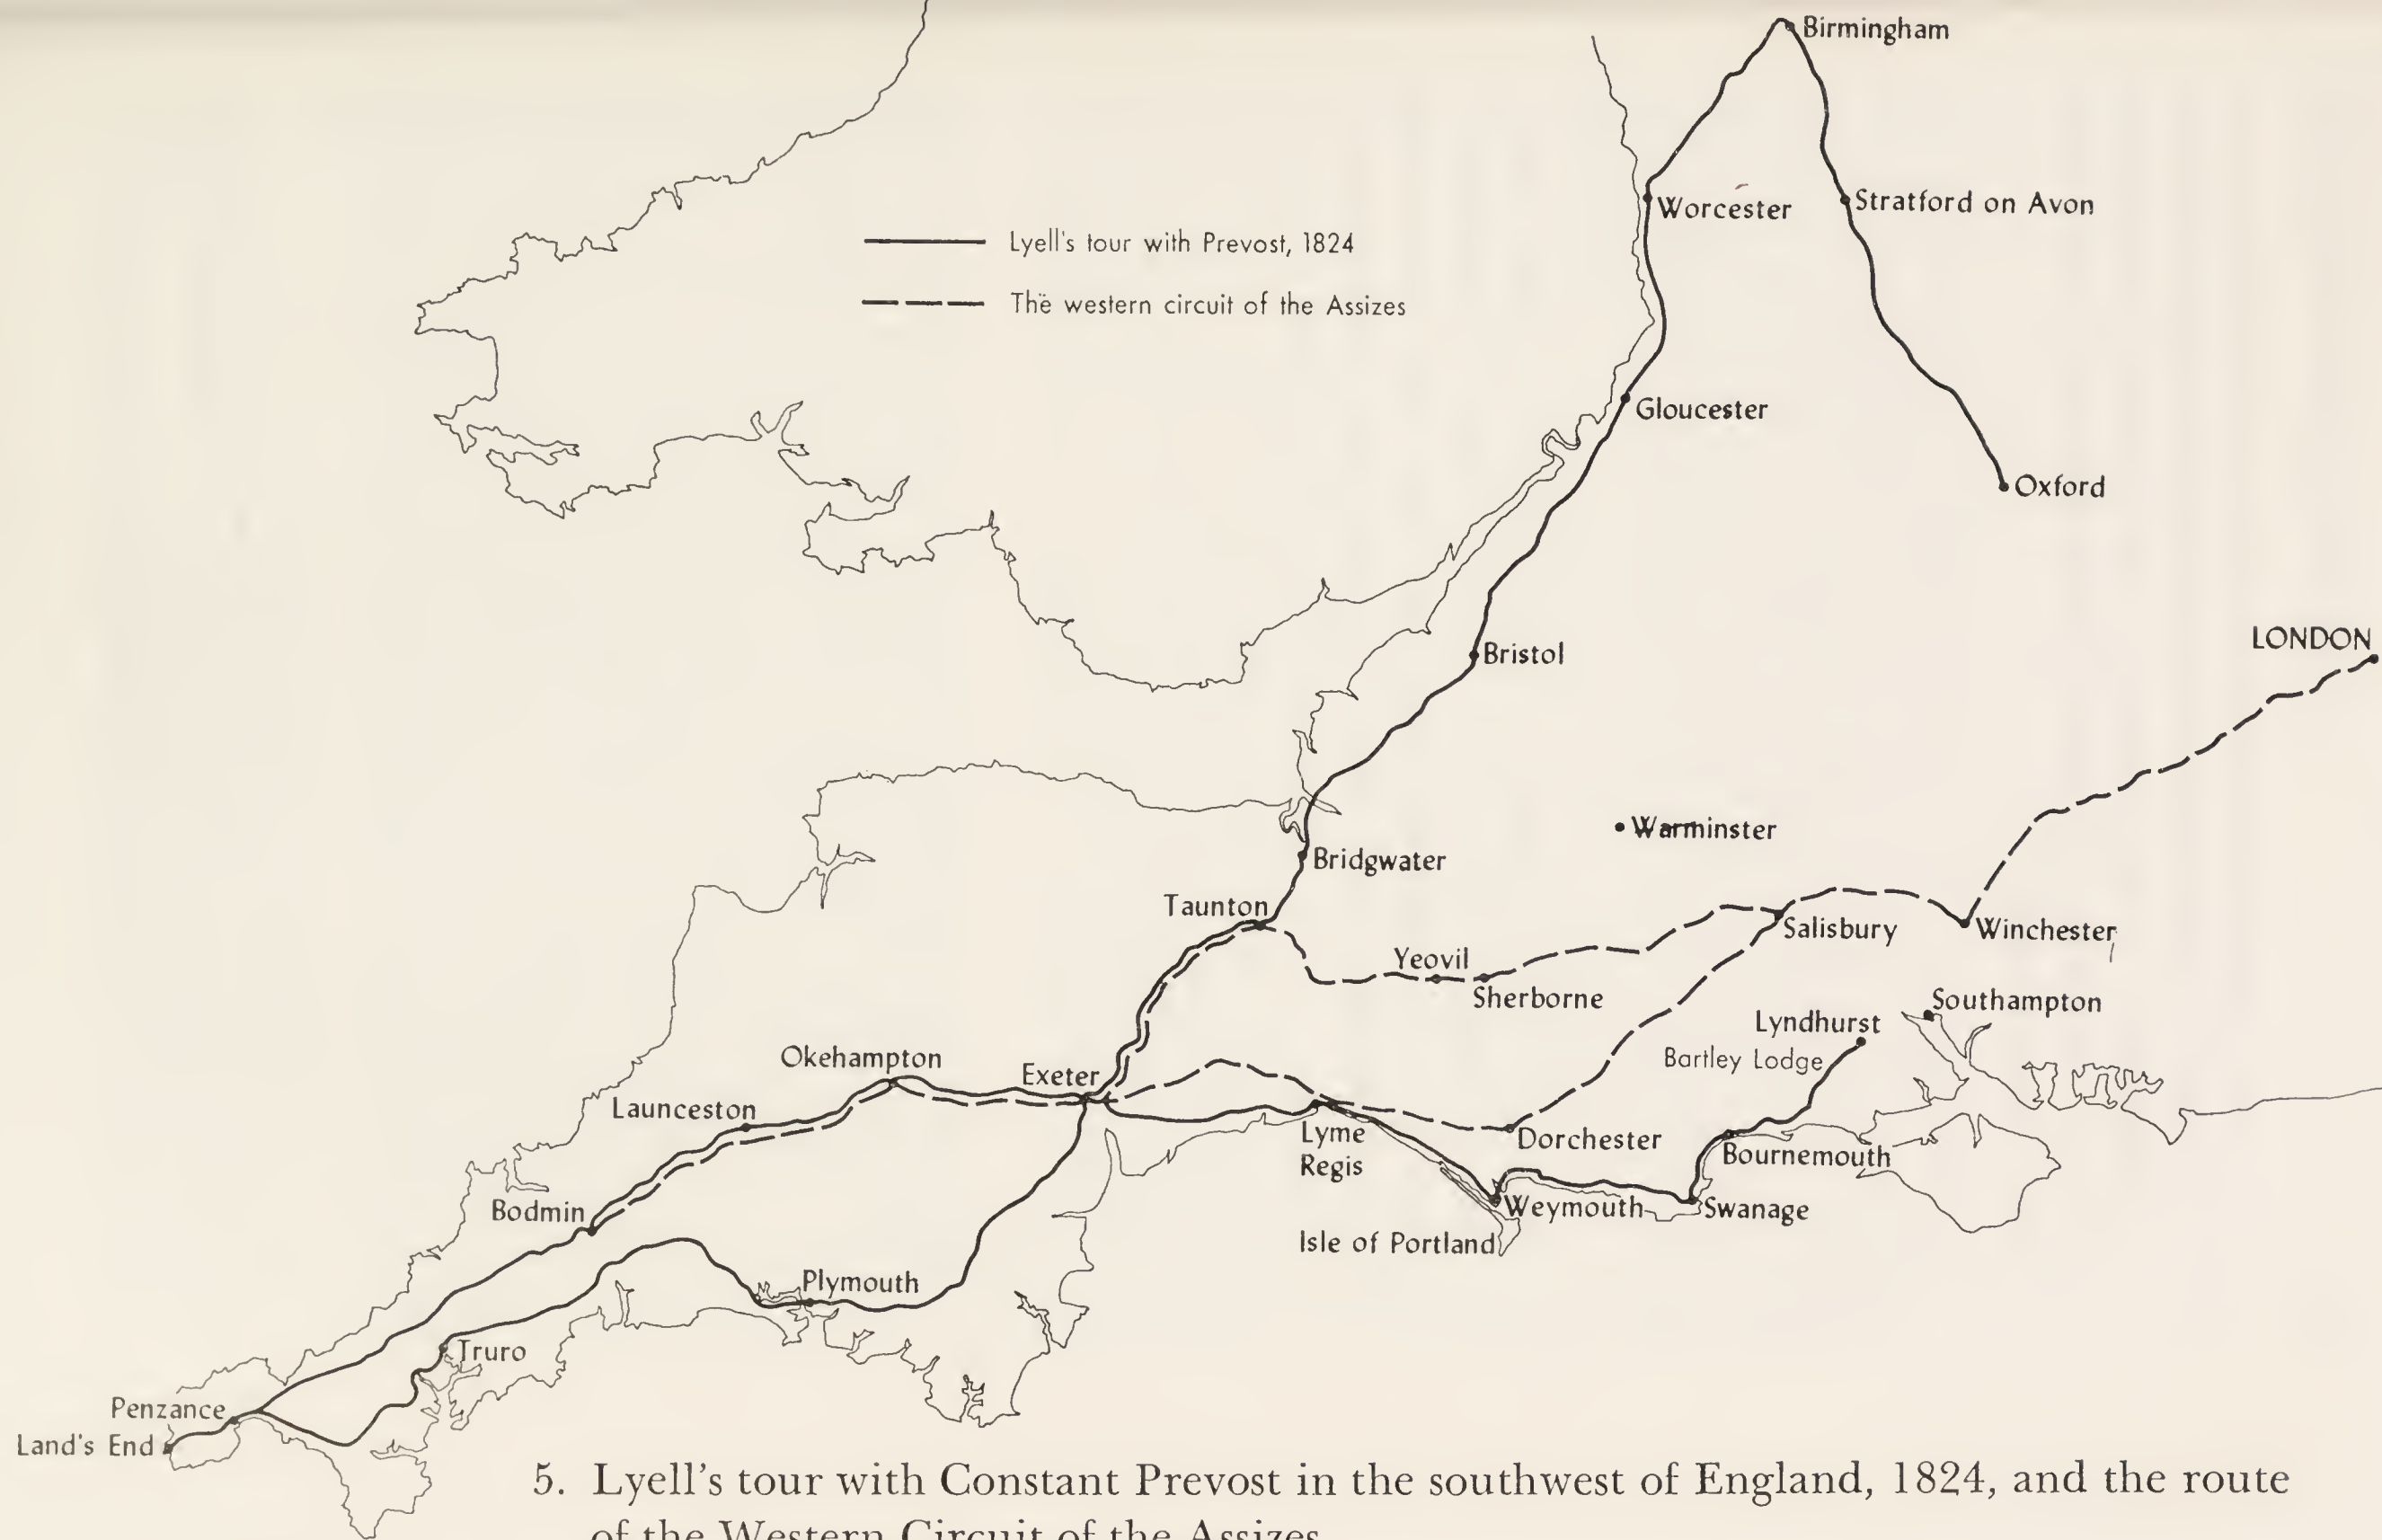

2. Lyell's tour to Staffa in 1817

3. Lyell's tour in Switzerland with his family, 1818

4. Thomas Webster's tour of the Isle of Wight, 1811

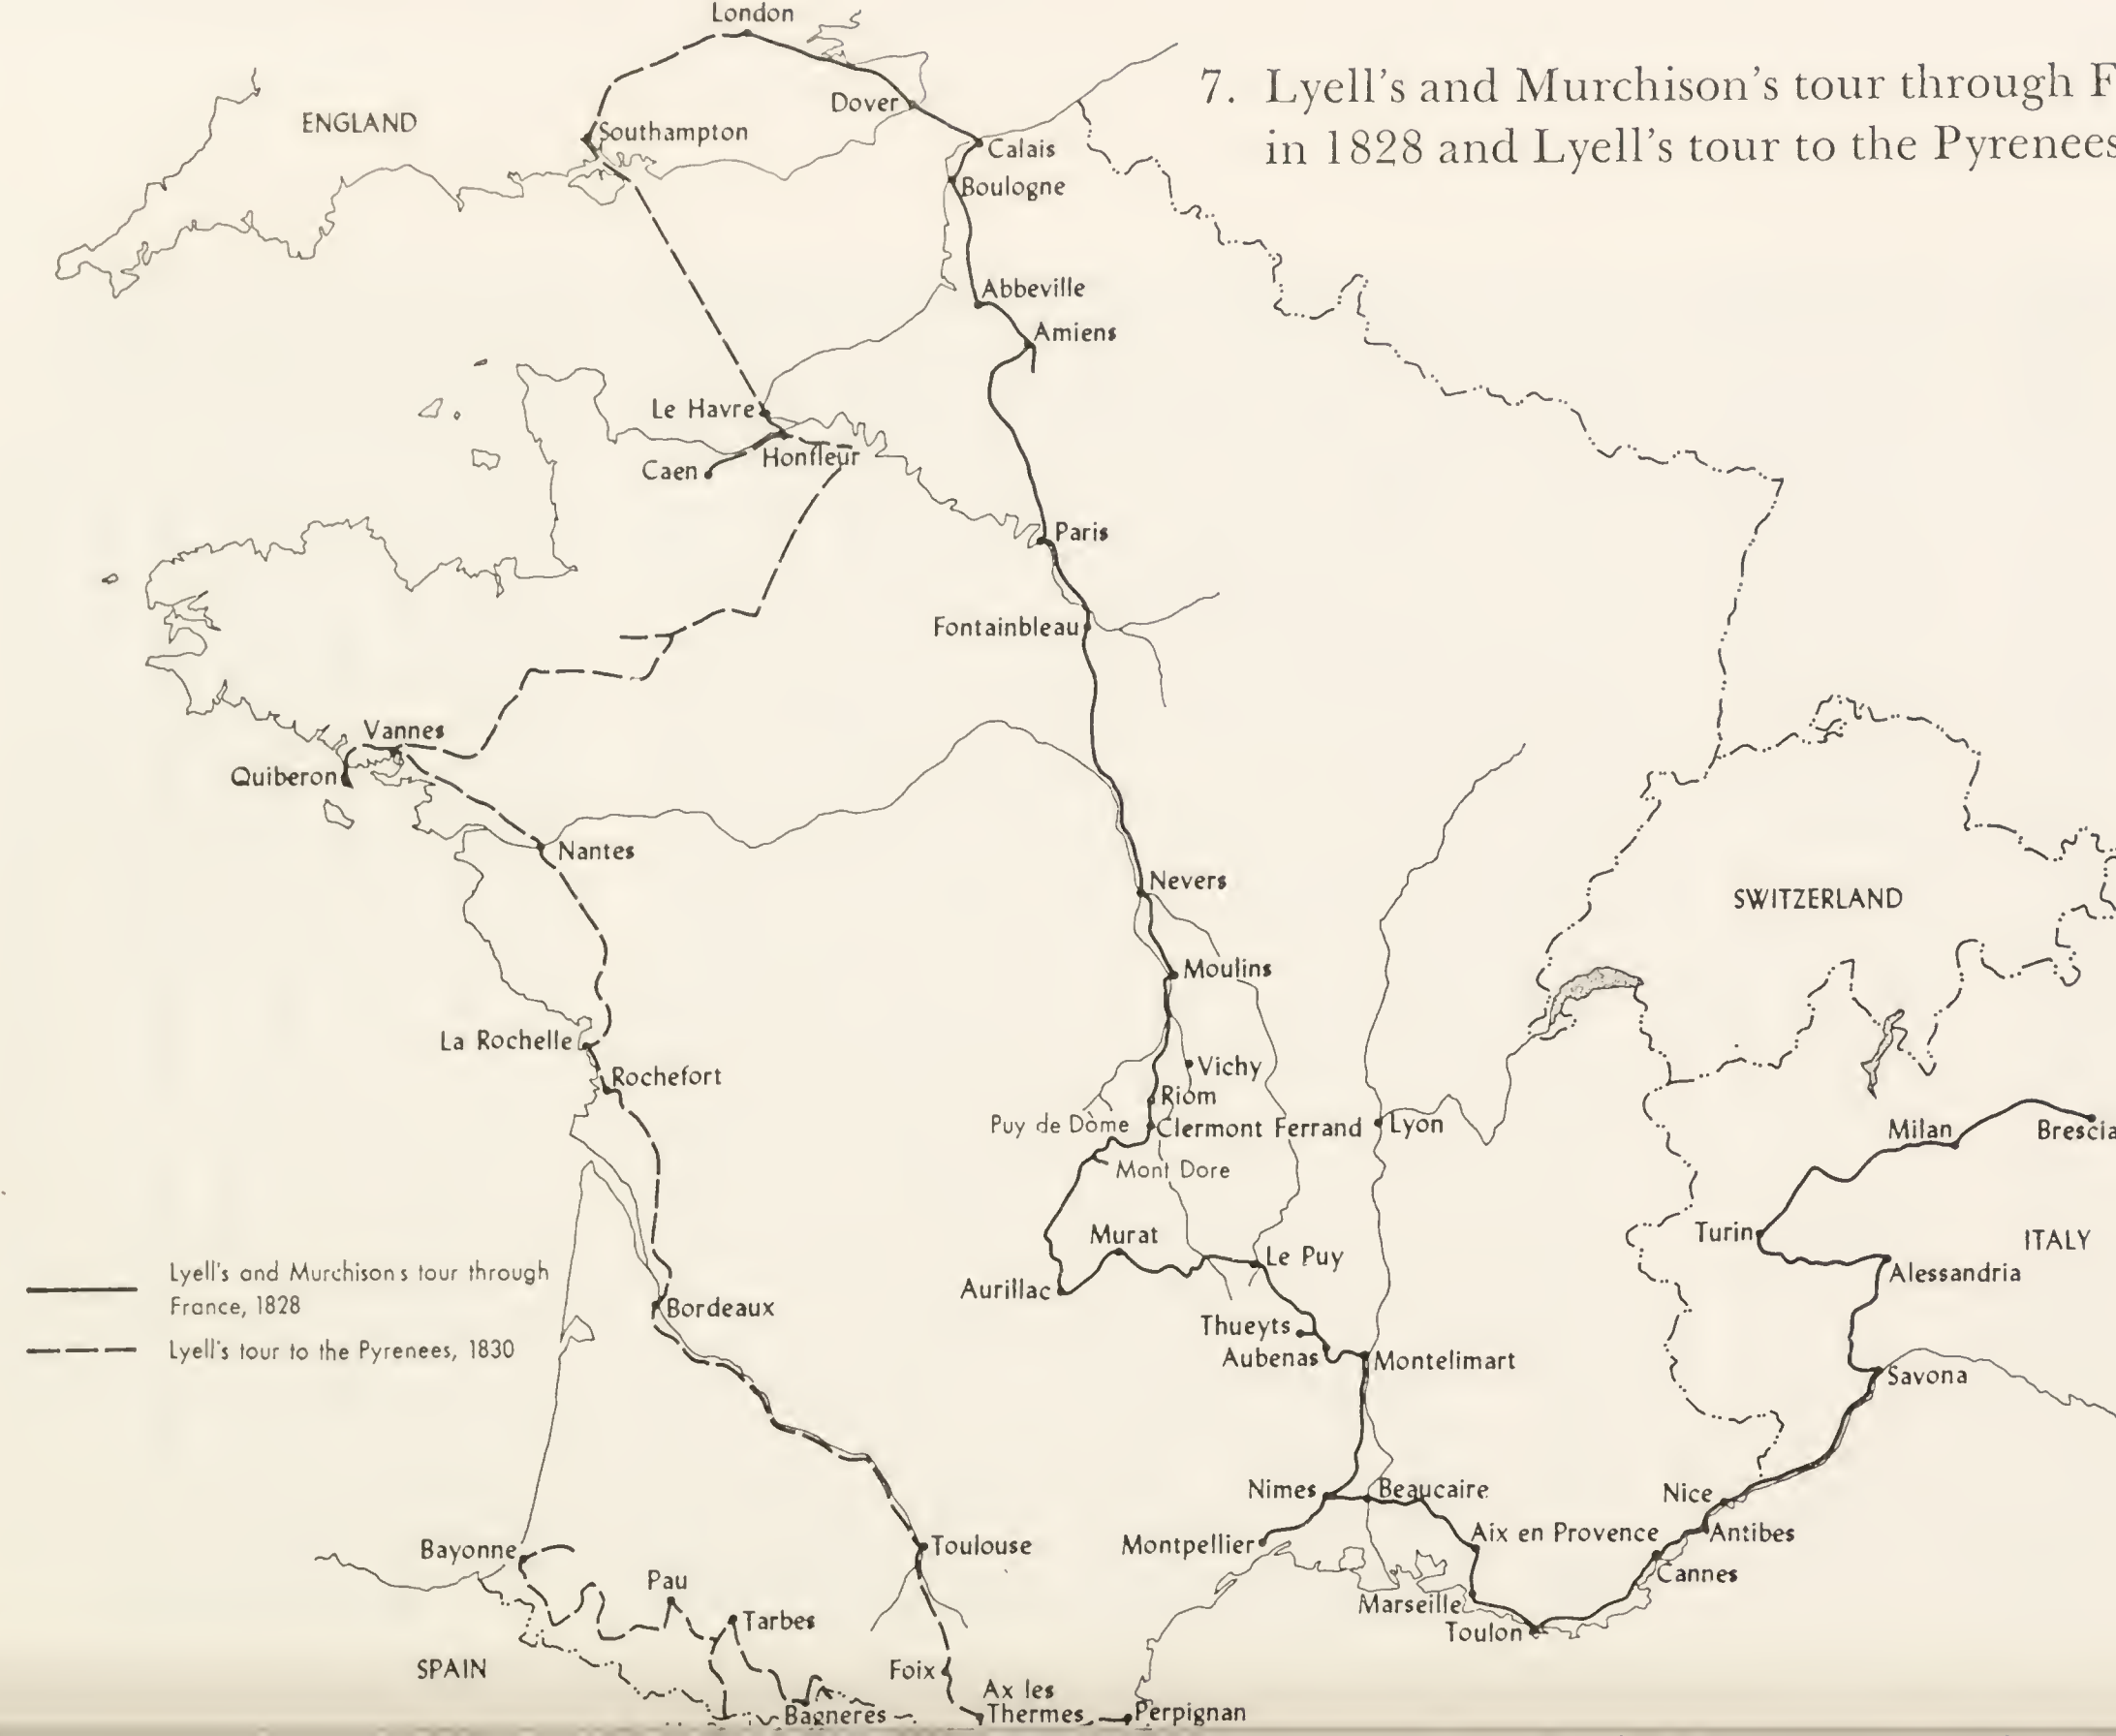

5. Lyell's tour with Constant Prevost in the southwest of England, 1824, and the route of the Western Circuit of the Assizes

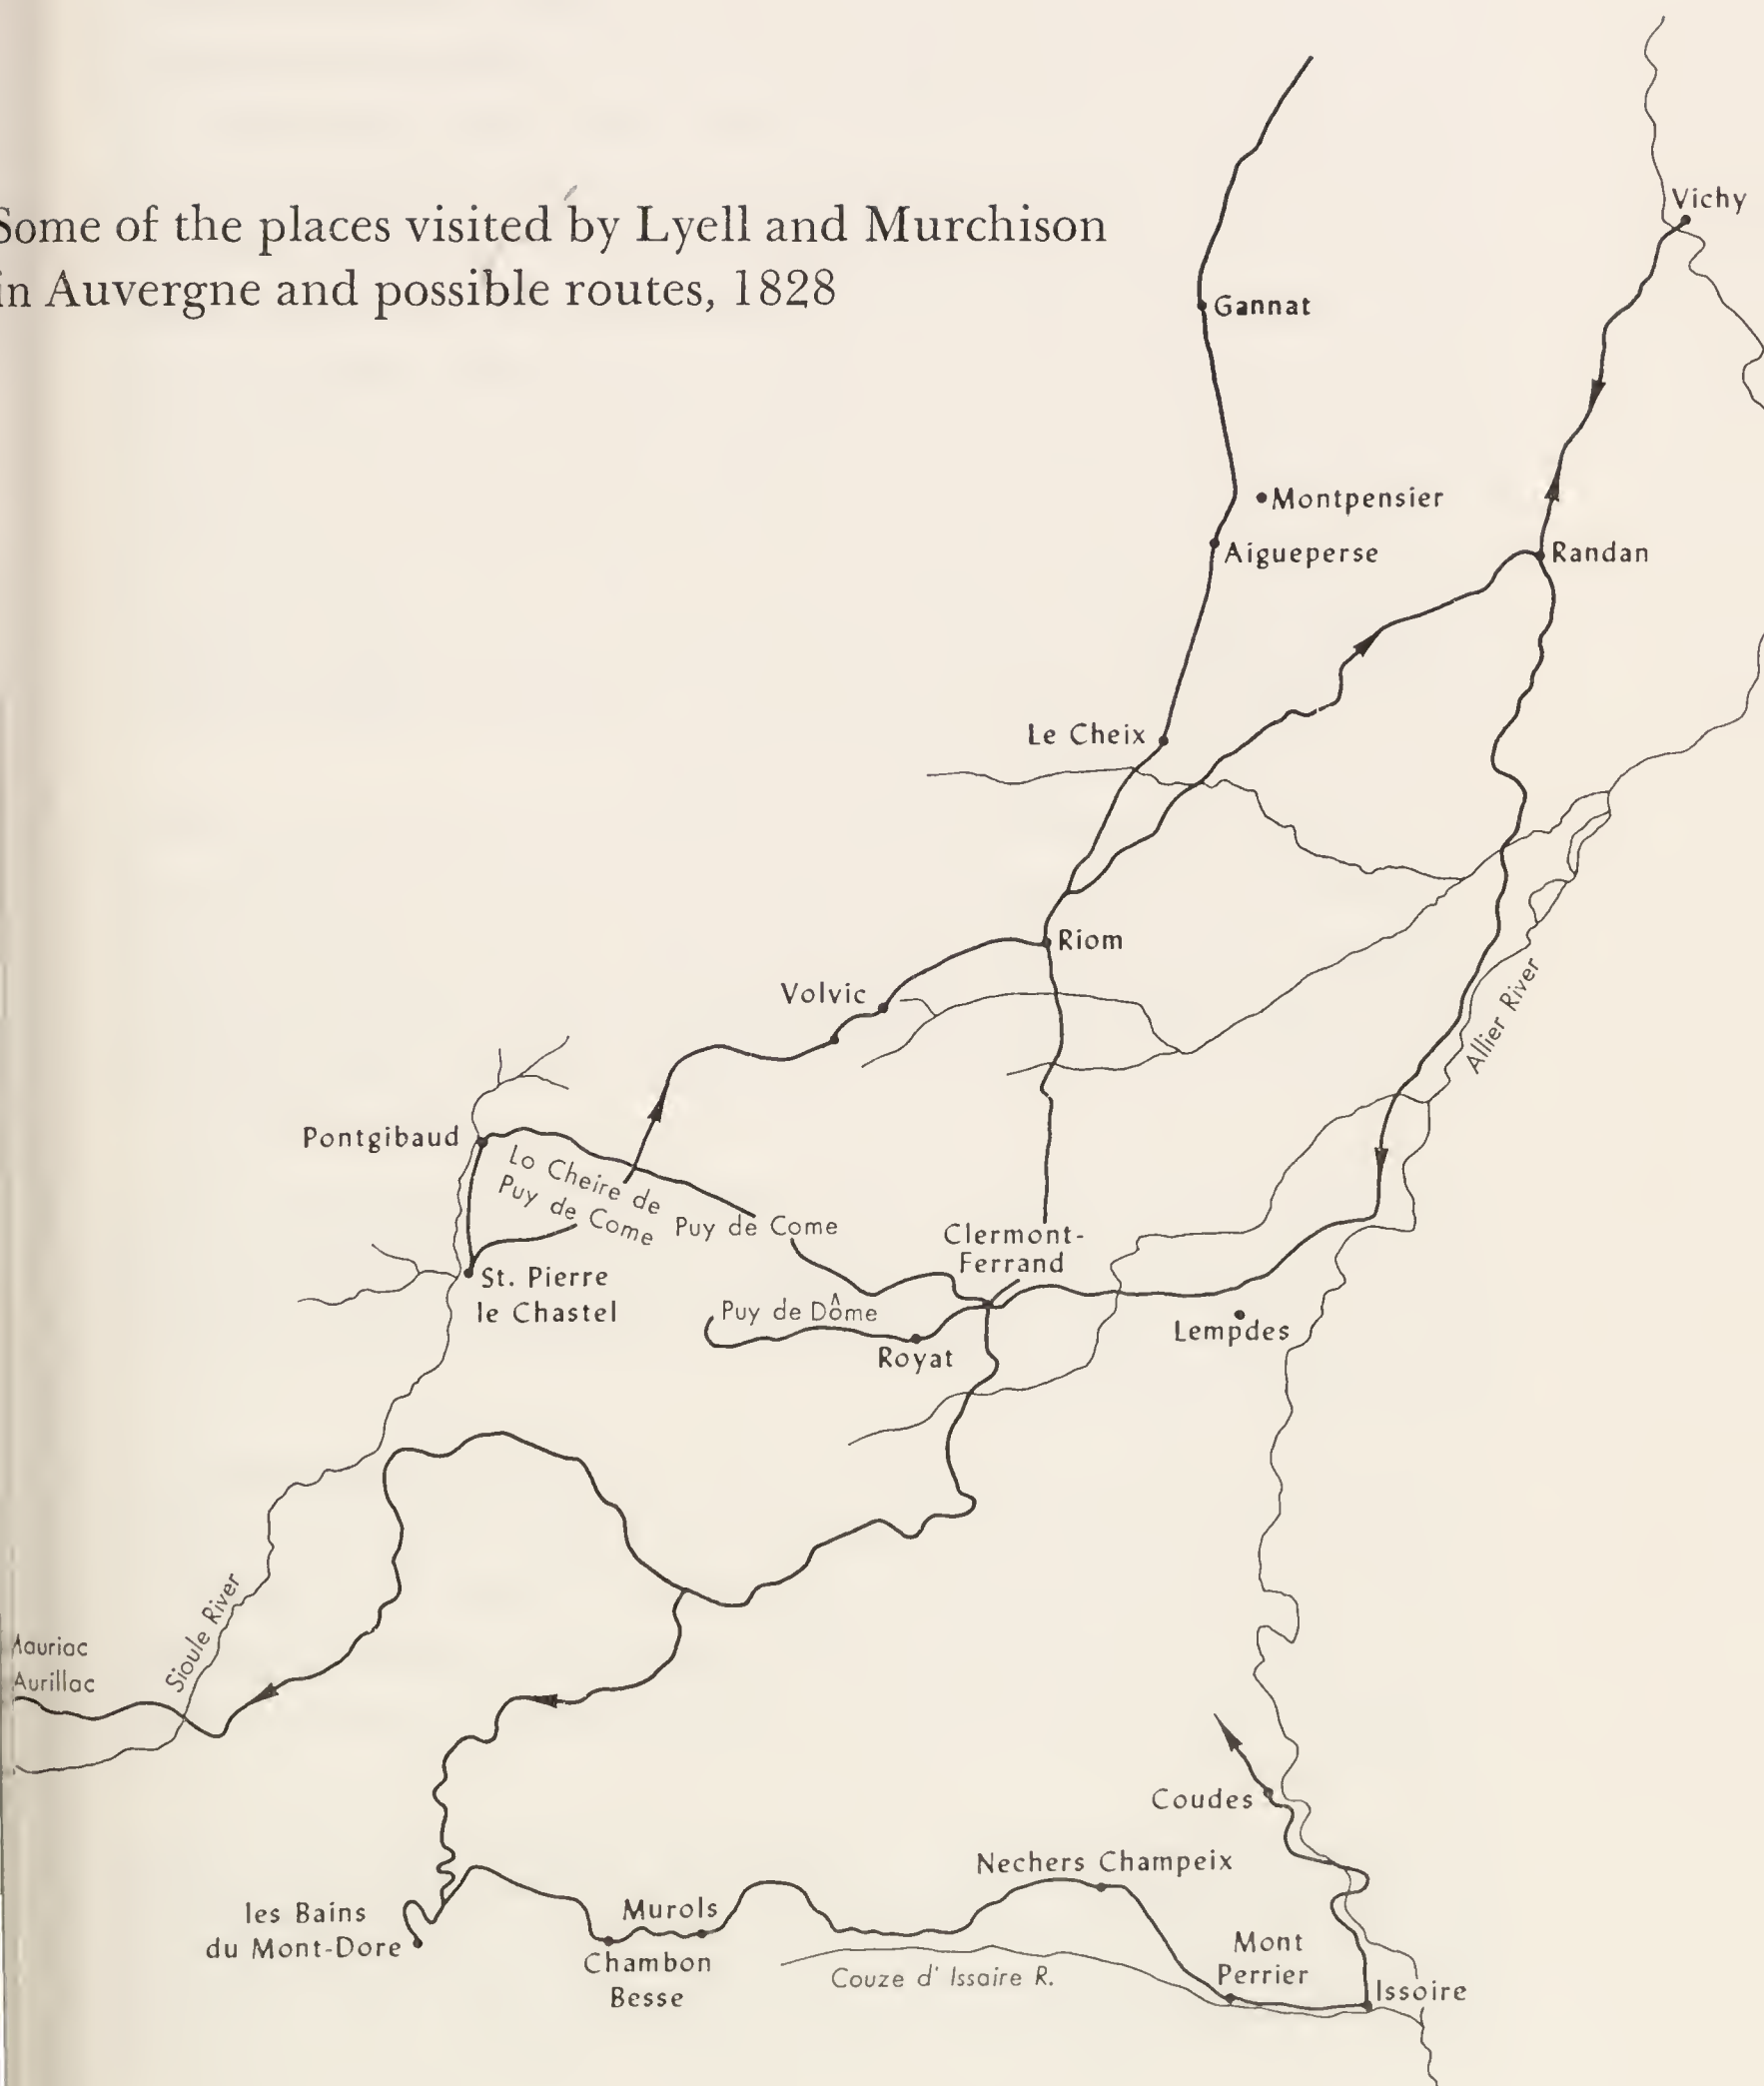

6. Lyell's London, with places where he lived and worked

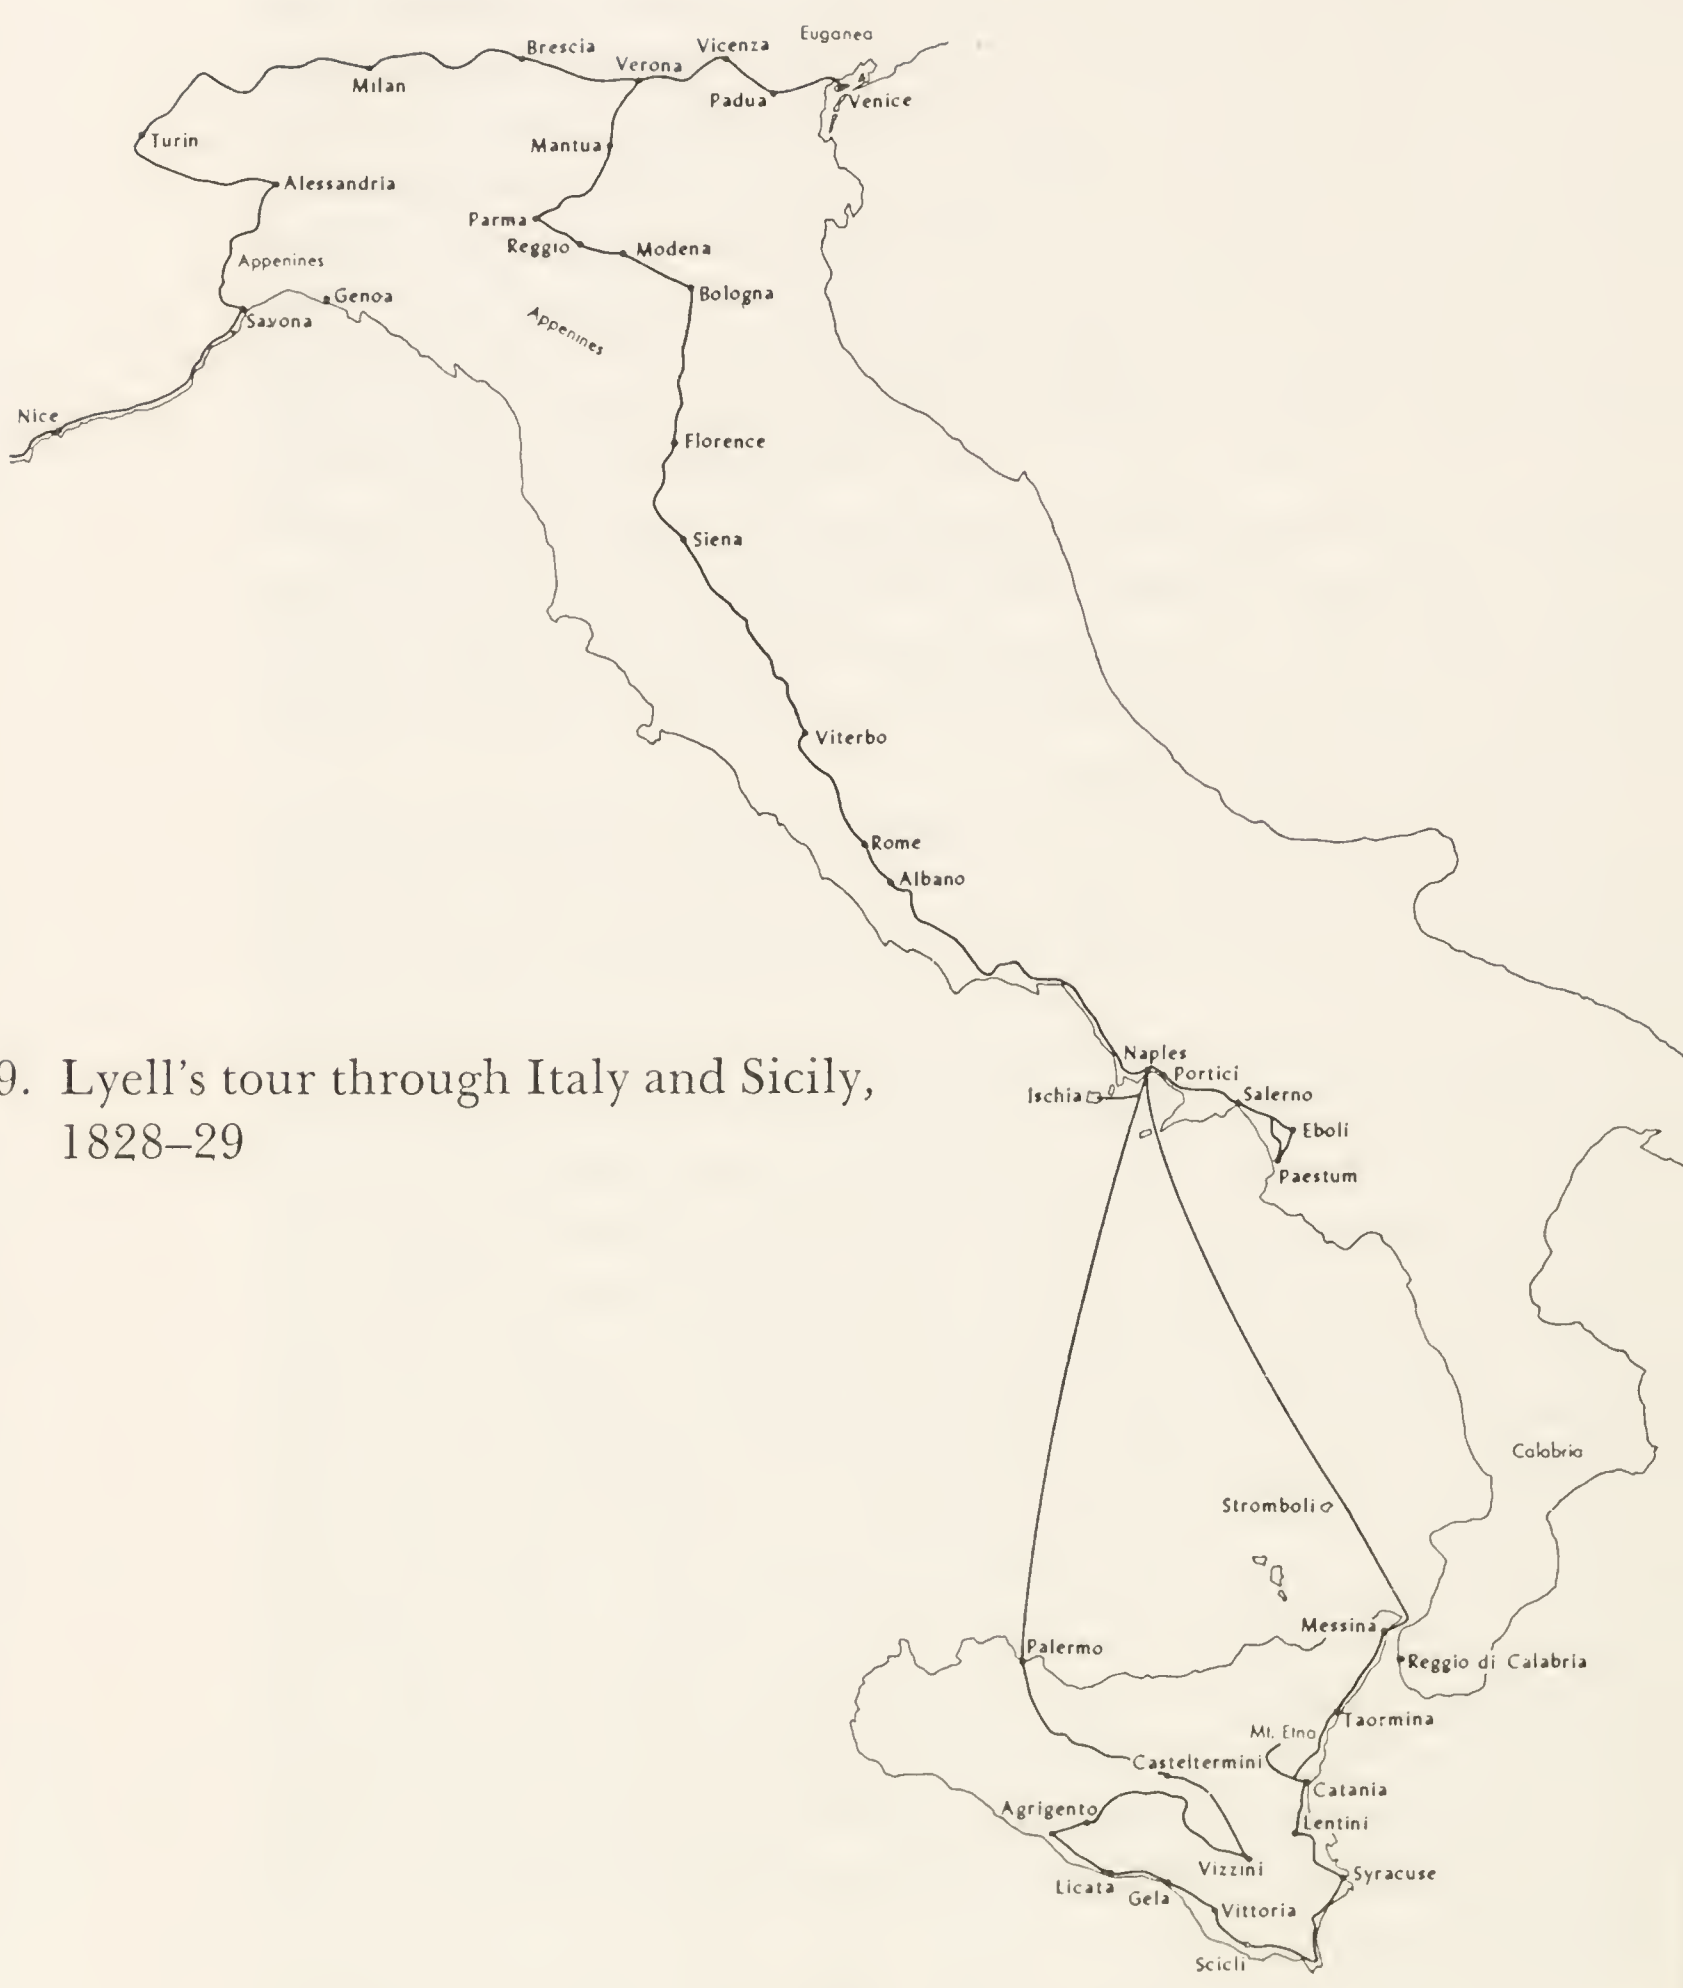

7. Lyell's and Murchison's tour through France in 1828 and Lyell's tour to the Pyrenees in 1830

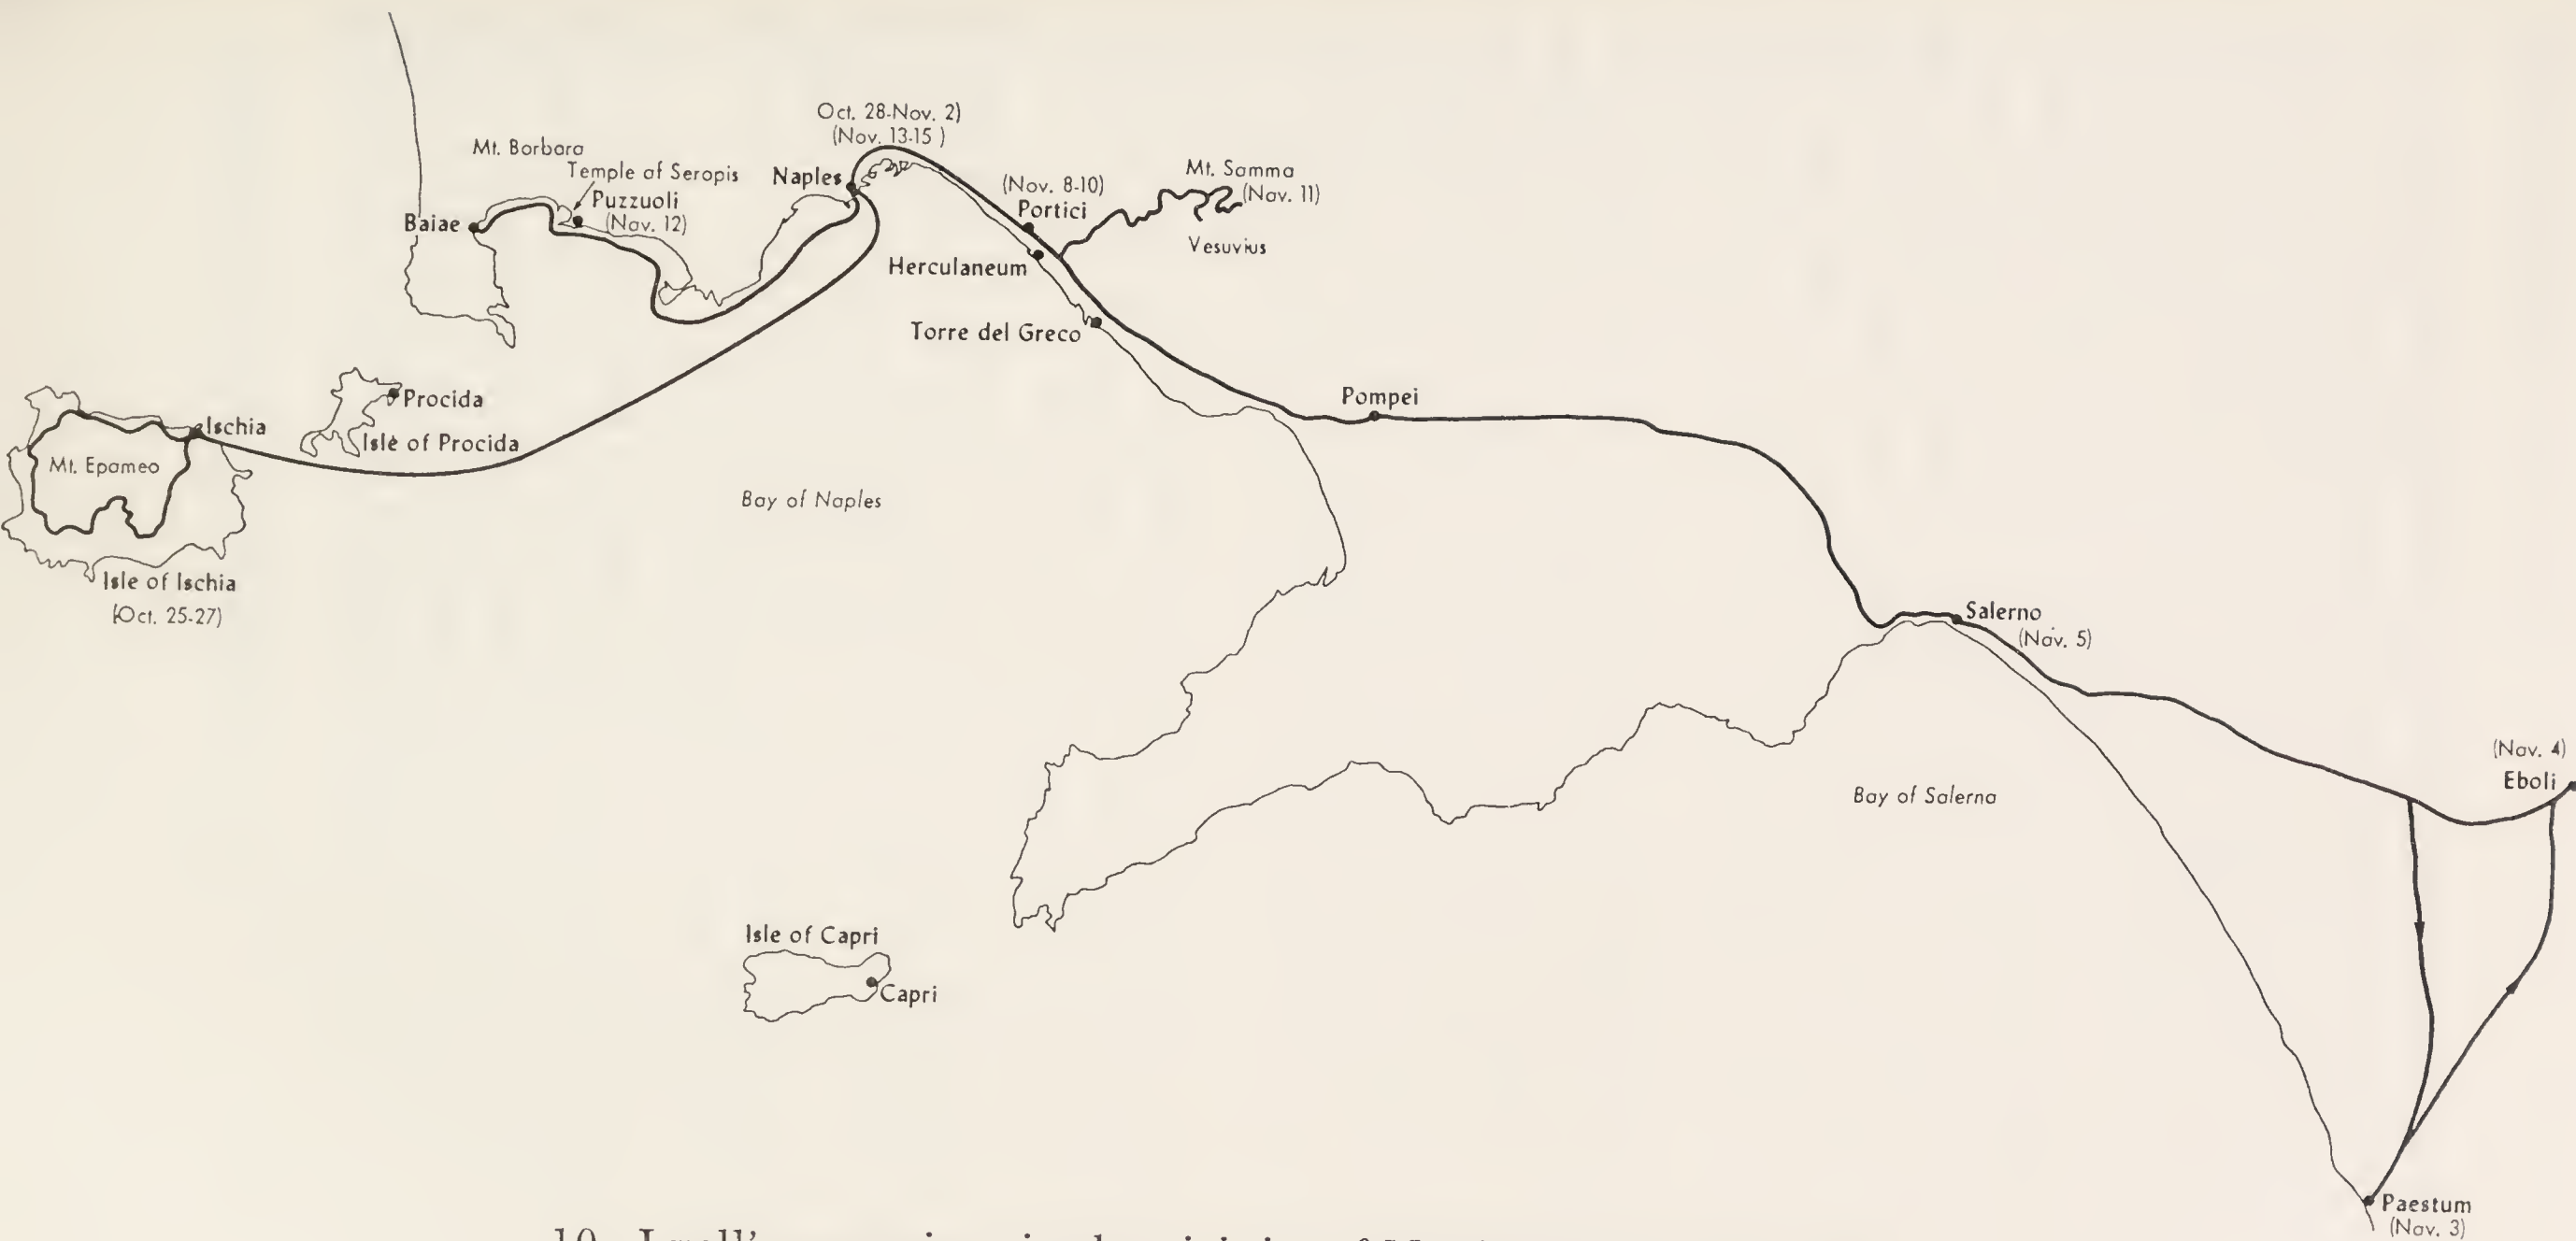

Some of the places visited by Lyell and Murchison in Auvergne and possible routes, 1828

9. Lyell's tour through Italy and Sicily, 1828-29

10. Lyell's excursions in the vicinity of Naples, November 1828

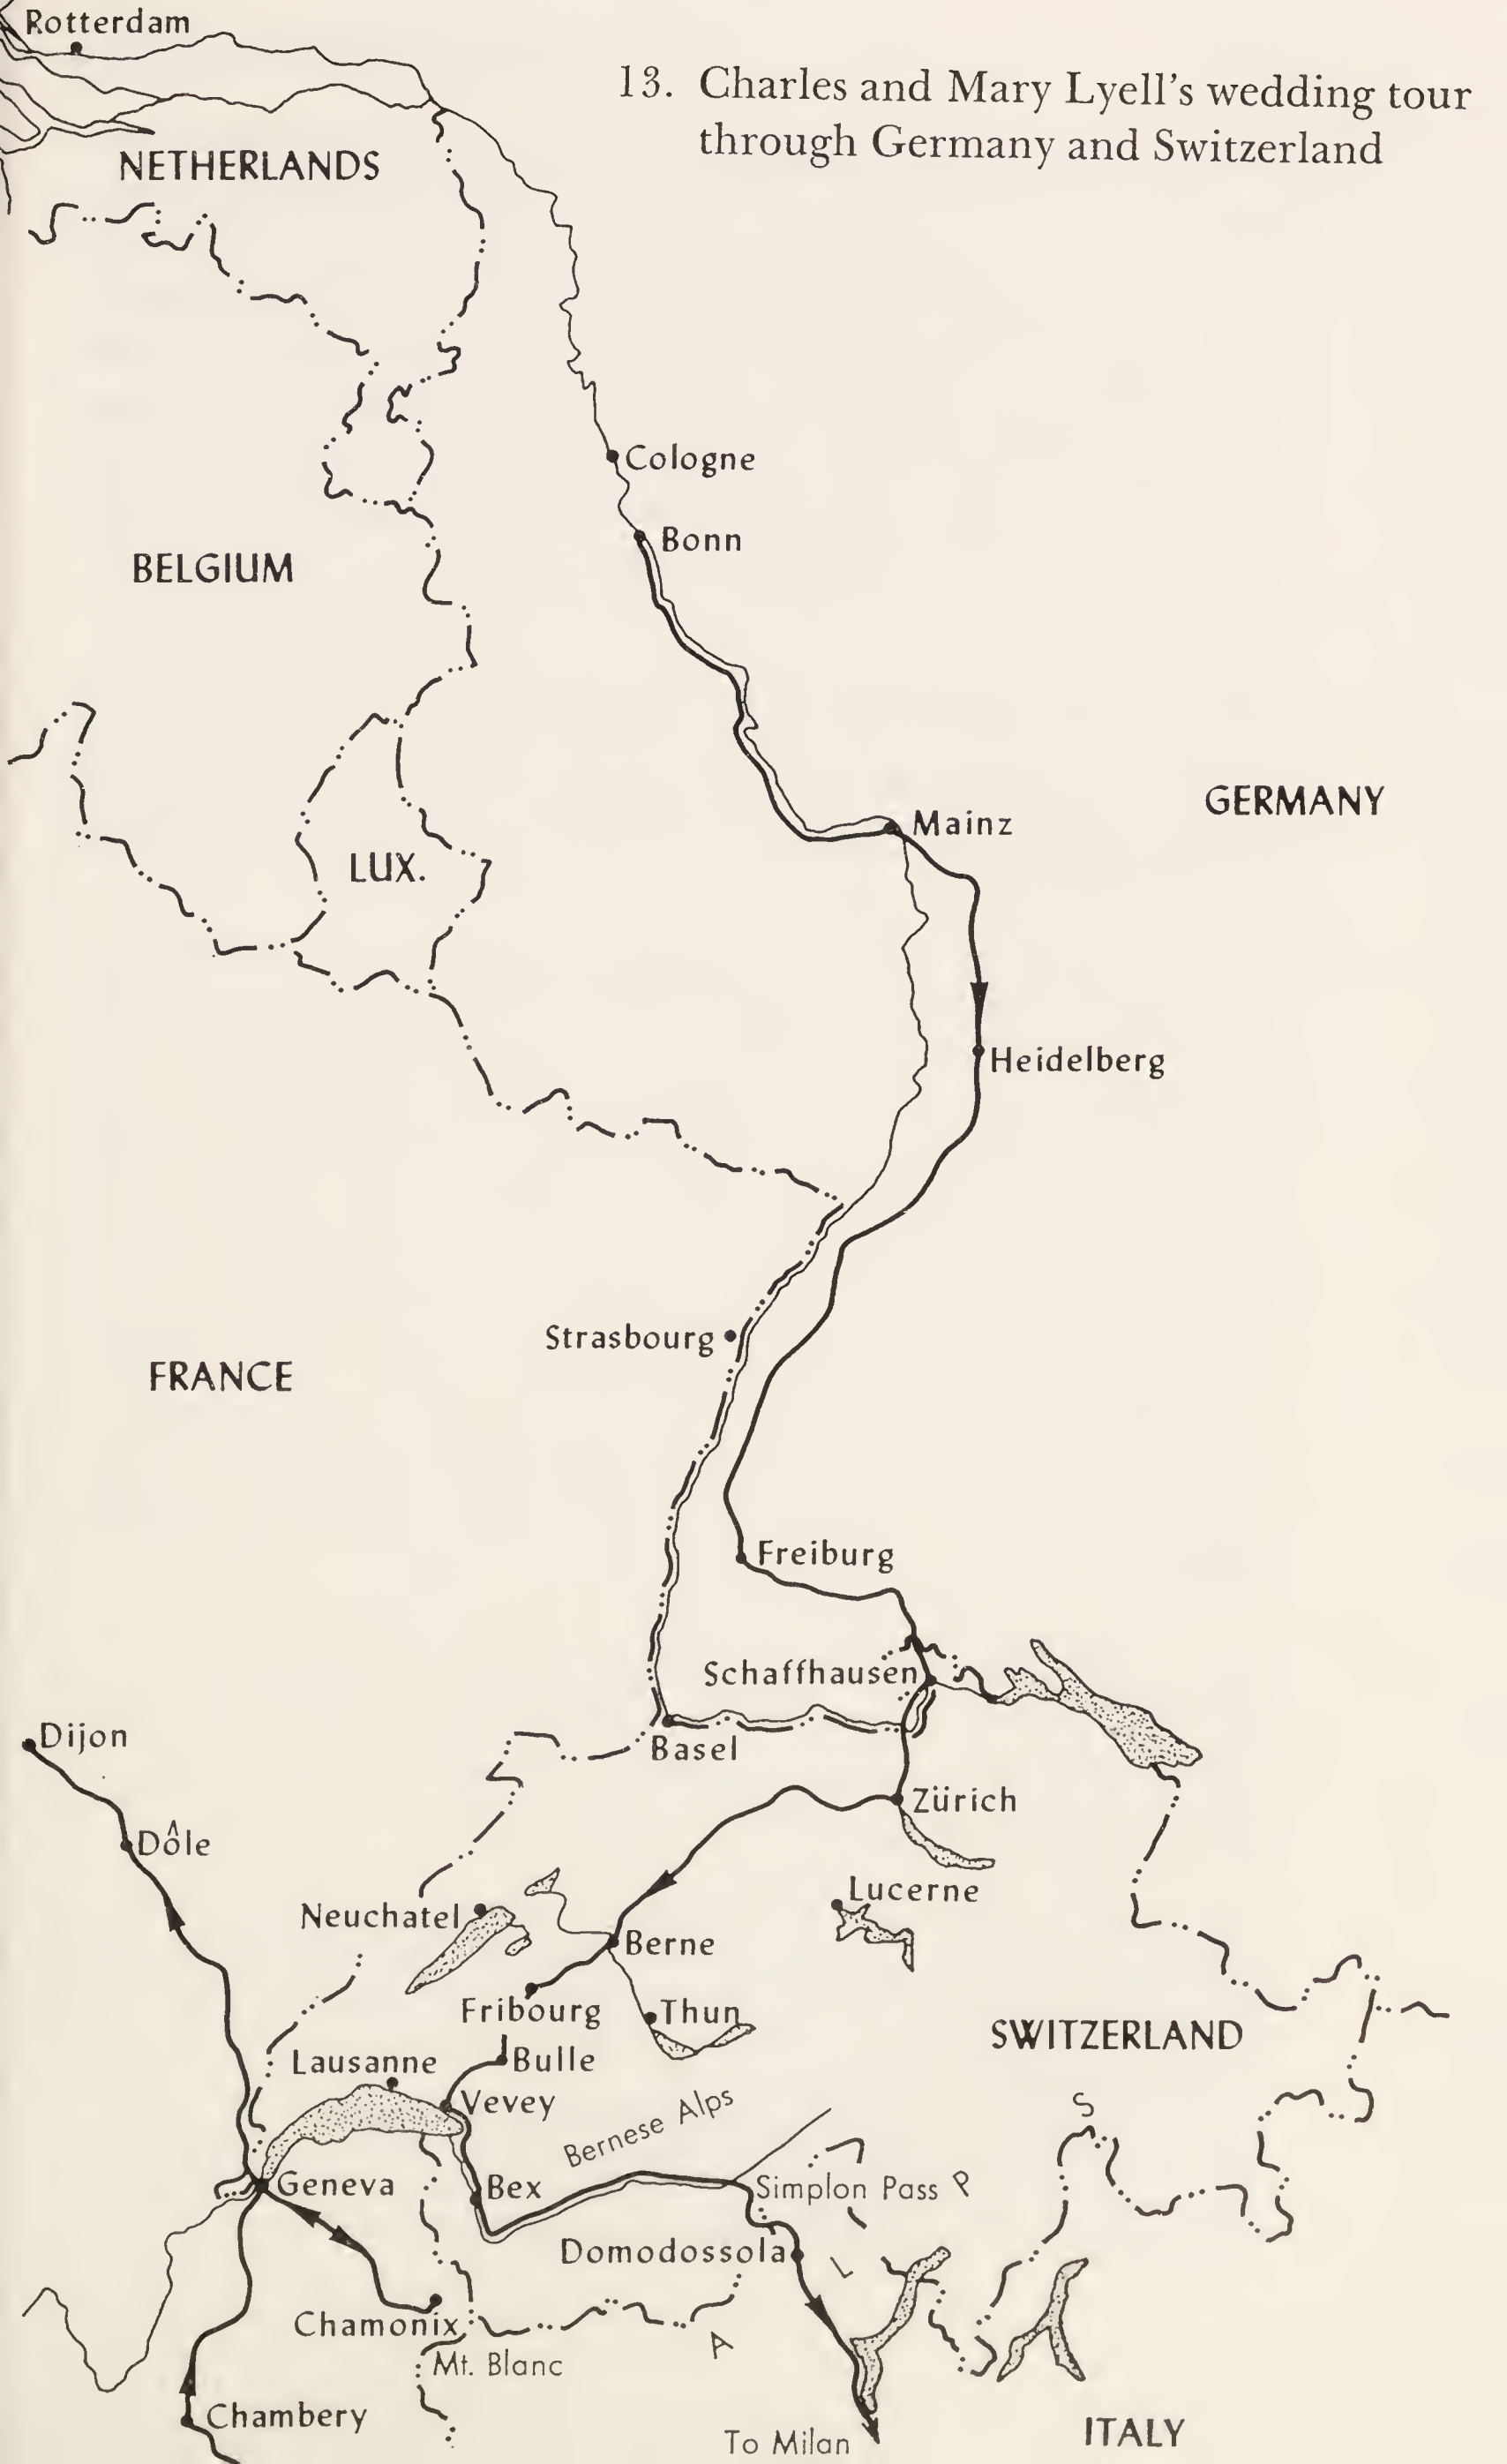

11. Lyell's route through Sicily, 1828

12. Lyell's tour in Spain and possible routes, July 1830

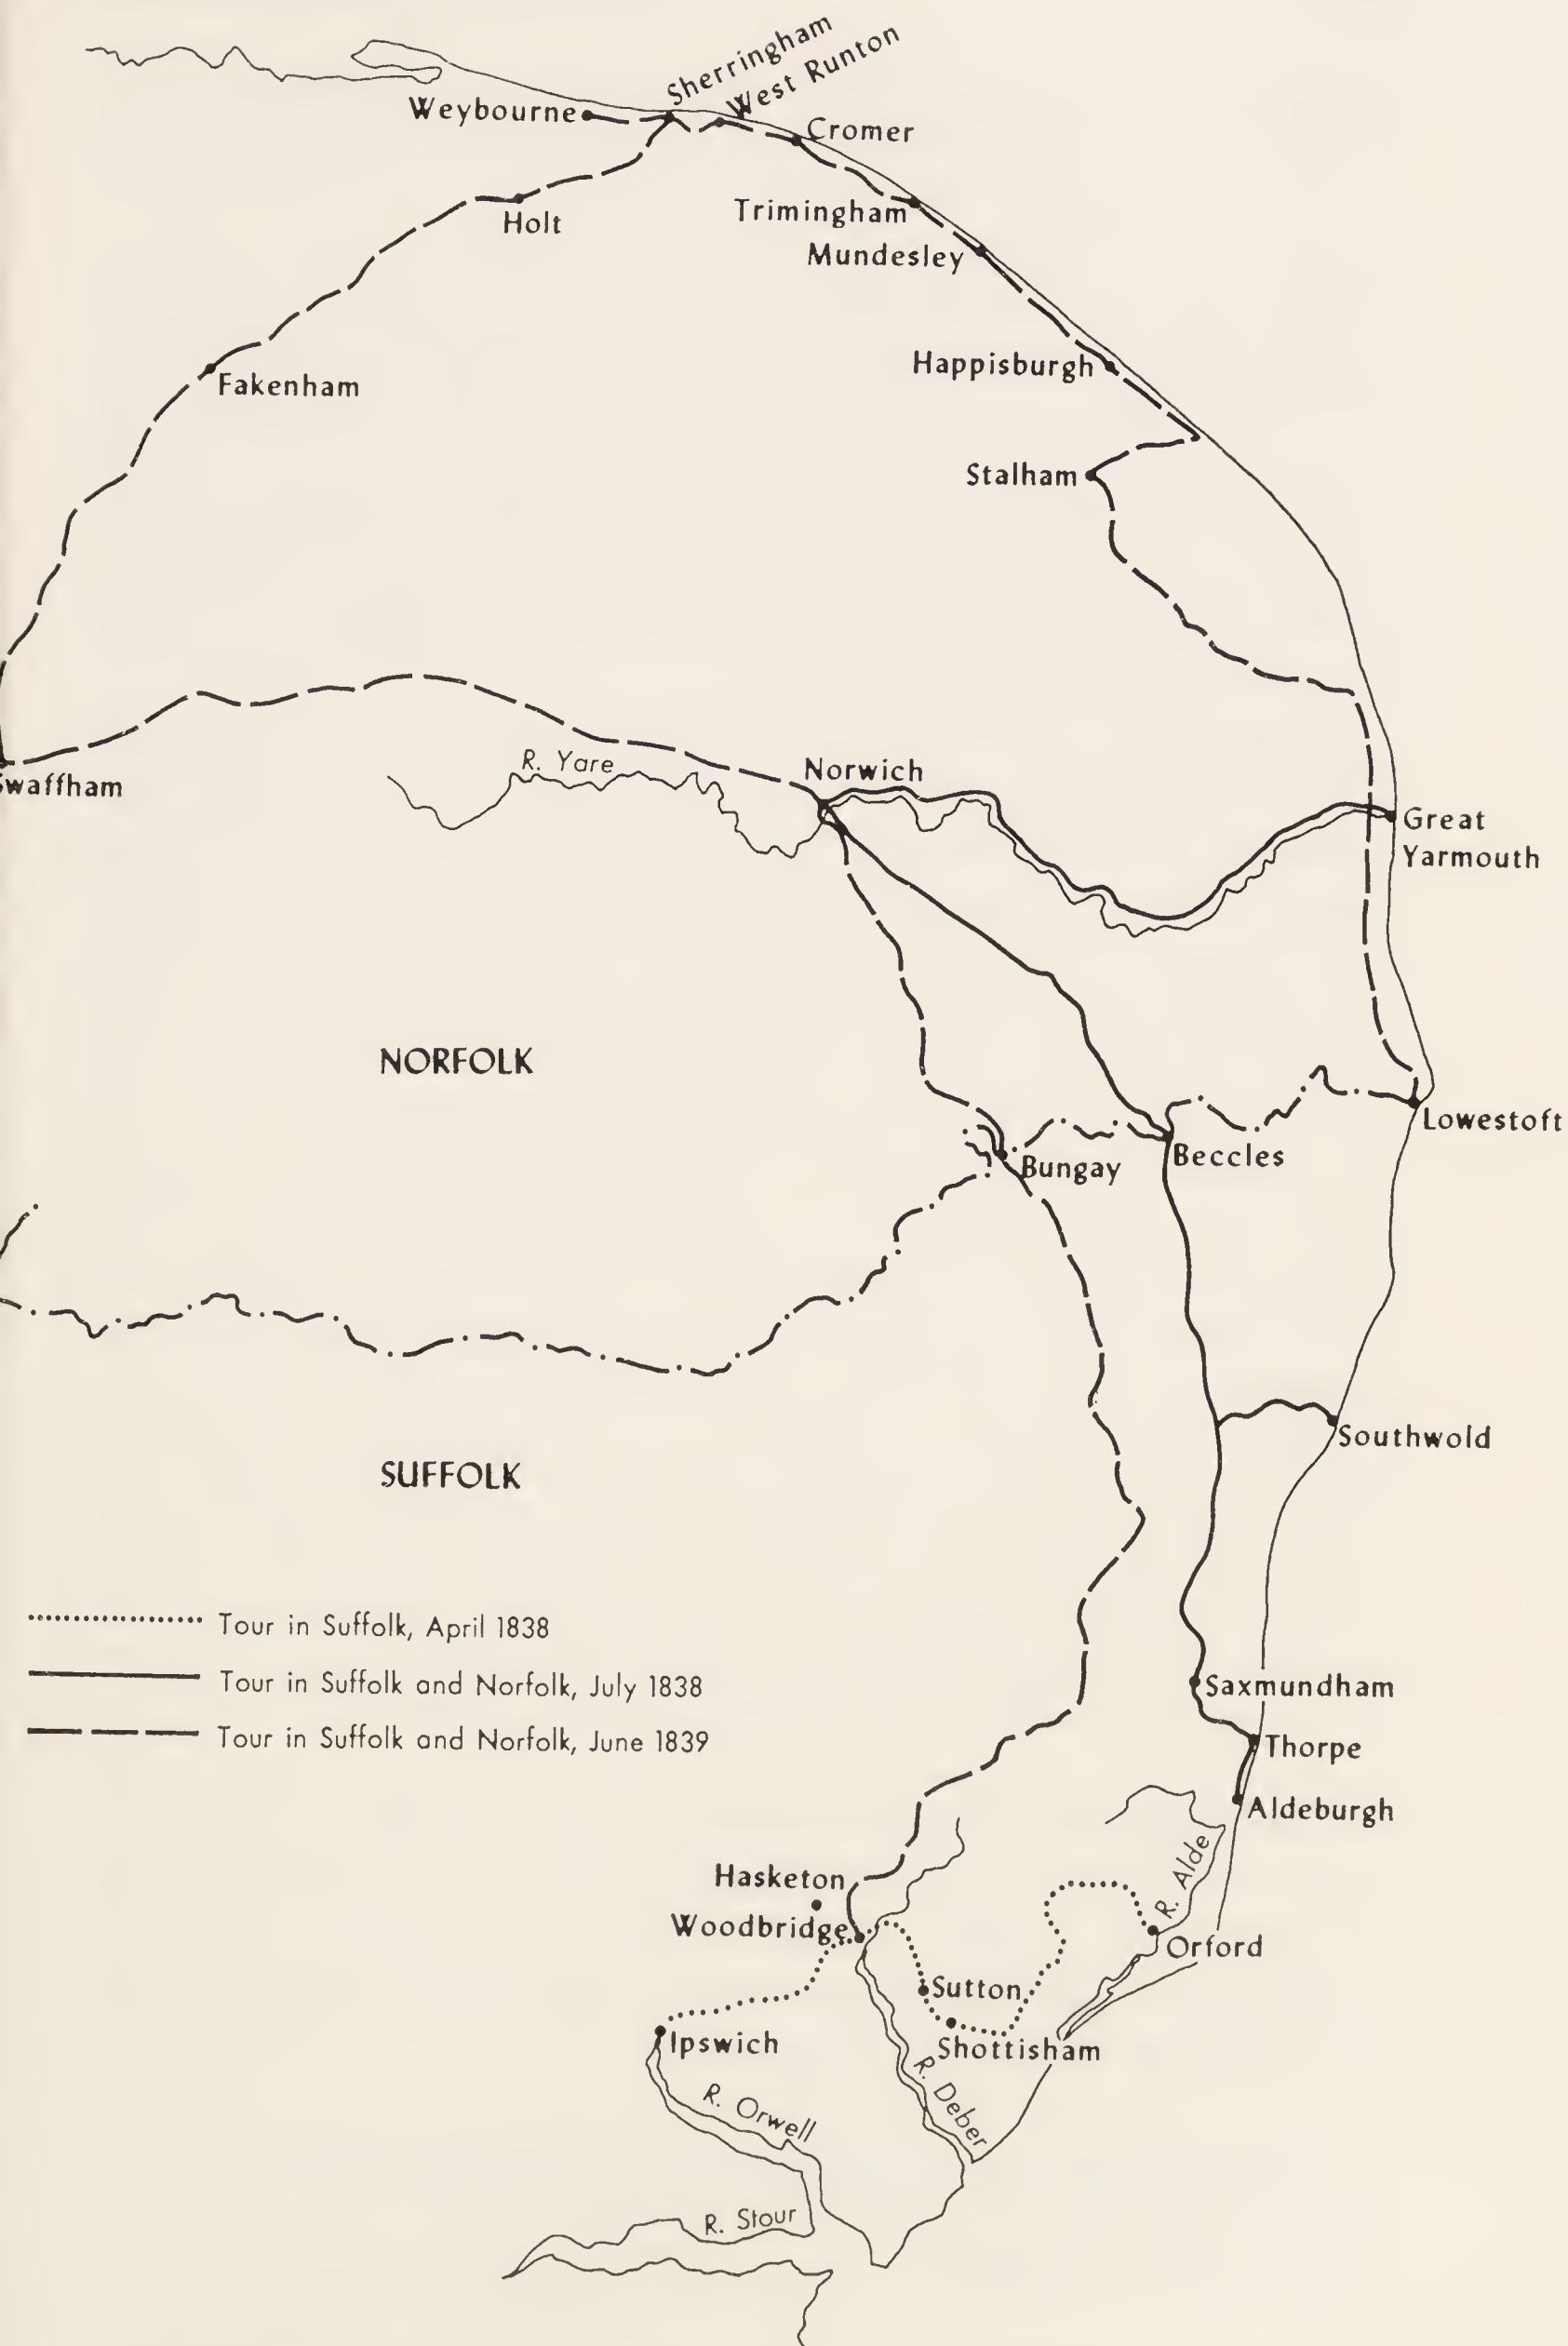

Rotterdam

13. Charles and Mary Lyell's wedding tour through Germany and Switzerland

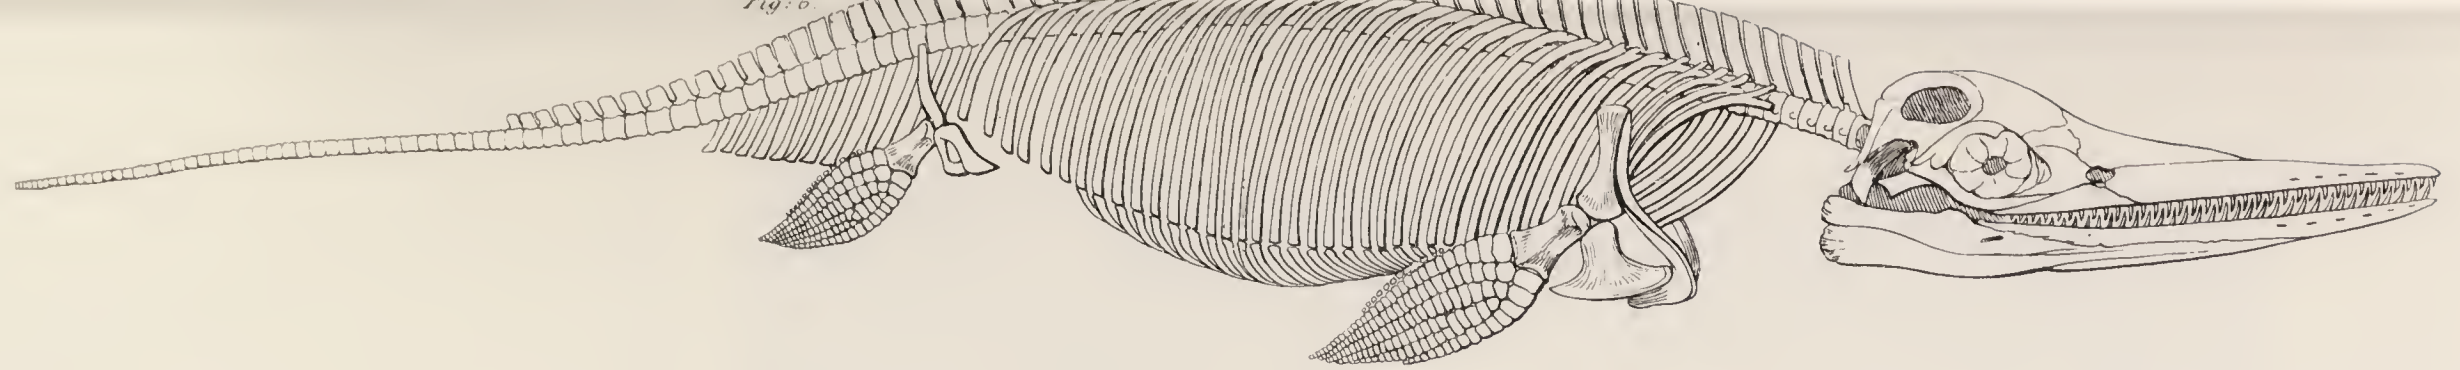

15. Lyell's tour in Switzerland, August–September 1835

16. Lyell's tours in Suffolk and Norfolk to study the Crag

17. Lyell's tour in Normandy and Touraine, July 1840

Plesiosaurus Dolichodeirus

Fig. 1.

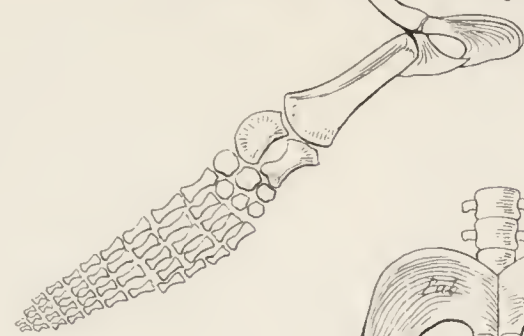

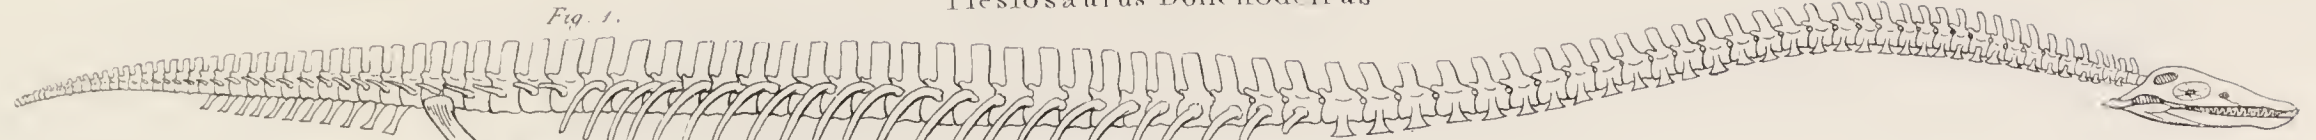

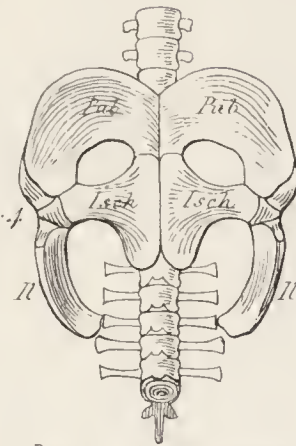

Fig. 4.

Pelvis of the Plesiosaurus

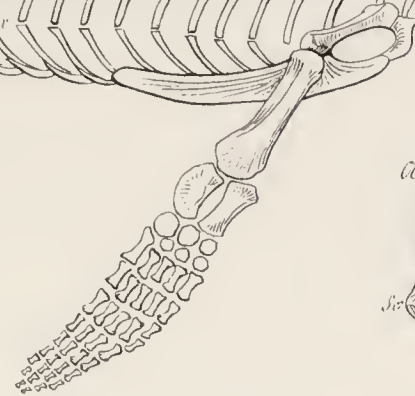

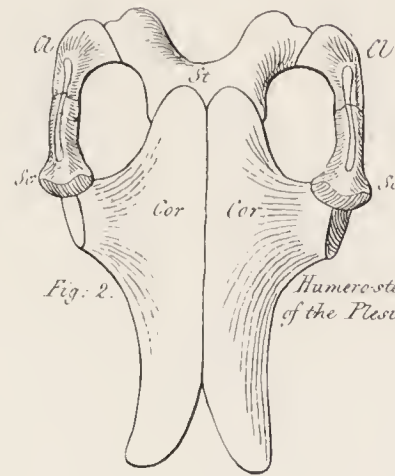

Fig. 2.

Humero-sternal part of the Plesiosaurus

Humero-sternal part of the Ichthyosaurus

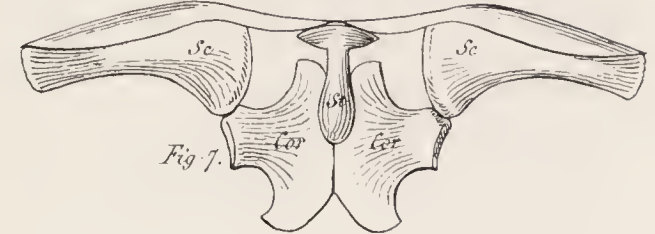

Fig. 7.

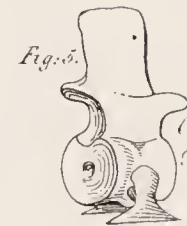

Fig. 5.

Cervical Vertebra of the Plesiosaurus

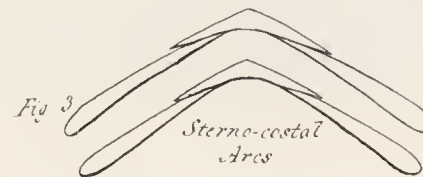

Fig. 3.

Sterno-costal Arcs

Drawn by the Rev. W. D. Conybeare

RESTORATION OF THE PLESIOSAURUS DOLICHODEIRUS, AND ICHTHYOSAURUS COMMUNIS.

J. Scharf Lithog
Printed by C. Hullmandel

Fig. 10. W. D. Conybeare's reconstruction of Ichthyosaurus and Plesiosaurus.